150-Pound Lion Is Pet

Chico Requires 10 Pounds Of Meat Daily

Most people are satisfied with dogs or kittens around the house as pets for the children but a former city woman apparently believes the usual domestic animals just don't measure up to standards.

Chained in the yard of her parents' East End home is the unusual pet of Mrs. Donald Watkin of Miami, Fla.—an 150-pound mountain lion she obtained while vacationing in Mexico.

"Chico," just 11 months old and playful as a kitten(?)—with its owners—is becoming quite an attraction around the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Redmond, 1710 Pennsylvania Ave., whom Mrs. Watkin is visiting.

"Chico" was obtained in a small town in the mountains of Old Mexico and a goat nursed him as a cub.

Now big and powerful, "Chico" seems to find life far from the cool Mexican mountains much to his liking and is fast becoming used to the torrid heat wave of Ohio.

The sleek-looking cat consumes about 10 pounds of horse meat daily and spends his time in East End frolicking under a shade tree with a companion, a bird dog owned by Mrs. Watkin. The two play together much more quietly than expected although "Chico" sometimes roughs up his canine companion,, "Wilson," when in a nasty mood.

"Chico" isn't the first mountain lion to be befriended by Mr. and Mrs. Watkin. They had another lion for a pet several years ago but sold him to a zoo in Florida when the animal turned cranky with old age.

The problem of transporting the lion on cross-country trips was solved by erecting a partitioned compartment in the rear of their station wagon. Mrs. Watkin said "Chico" loves to ride in the car and attracts lots of attention from

Vows Exchanged In Norway

Gov. Rockefeller's Son Weds Norwegian Beauty

They pronounced their vows in a country church on a gentle knoll, within sight of the bride's family home.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, and Steven's brothers, sisters, and a sister-in-law, witnessed the Lutheran ceremony seated on wooden benches on the right side of the church.

Mrs. Rockefeller and Anne Marie's father, Kristian Rasmussen, retired grocer and fish merchant, sat together near the altar on the right side.

The bride's mother, Lovise, watched the rites from the opposite side of the center aisle, which was decorated with pink carnations and roses.

The high spot in the ritual came when the Rev. Olav Gautestad, vicar of Sogne parish church, asked the young couple, in turn, whether they would take each other as man and wife. Then he said:

"Now give each other your hand on that."

Steven took Anne Marie's hand in his and the vicar placed his hands over theirs and solemnly pronounced the traditional phrase:

"You have promised each other that you will live in matrimony, and have confessed it before God and man and given your hand on it, and I now proclaim that you are man and wife. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost."

The wedding ceremony began at 4 p. m. (10 am. EDT).

Fifteen minutes earlier Gov. Rockefeller entered the church escorting Anne Marie's mother.

Mrs. Rockefeller entered a moment after with Steven.

Then, on the stroke of 4 Anne Marie passed through the huge front door of the church with her father. Her bright blonde hair gleamed from beneath a white veil. Her wedding dress, with a floor length hem, was of white duchesse silk.

To the strains of Wagner's wedding march, they walked toward the altar.

They took 119 steps from the door until Anne Marie stopped at Steven's side.

Mrs. Rockefeller, tall, slim and blue eyed, wore a black silk street-length dress with a velvet panel in the skirt and a bolero jacket.

Mrs. Rasmussen's costume was a printed cotton pique street-length dress in mauve and white. She wore a large mauve hat.

The six ushers, Rodman and Michael Rockefeller, brothers of Steven; his best man, Jerry Riggs, of Omaha, Neb., and three former schoolmates, stood on the right.

Anne Marie's sister, Thorhild,

Collector Shot In Turnpike Office Holdup

An Ohio Turnpike toll collector who thought two holdup men were joking was shot in the leg at the Youngstown Interchange at North Lima Friday night.

State Highway Patrolmen said the gunmen escaped with $1,596 in the first such holdup on the turnpike.

Paul Gerner of Poland was wounded when one of the gunmen fired at the ceiling to show he was in earnest. The bullet ricocheted off a water pipe.

Patrolmen said Gerner and two other collectors, William Bowen and Frank Ernst, both of Youngstown, were counting receipts in an office near the turnpike exit when two men came in carrying revolvers.

The two wore hooded sweatshirts, reversed and with eye-holes cut in the hoods, so their faces were masked. The collectors thought it was a joke until the bullet was fired.

The gunmen ordered the collectors to the floor, then grabbed the money and ran. They crossed a field and got into a car on Route 7, the patrol reported.

June had highs of 94 and 95 and there was a 94 in July but that was not as oppressive as today's seige.

The week-old heat wave, the third of the season—is particularly uncomfortable because of the high humidity and it was hardly possible the moisture content of the air would lessen.

Only scattered showers were forecast and they probably will add to the humidity, offsetting any relief from a temperature drop that might come with the rain.

The Ohio weatherman predicted a "cooling trend" Sunday if you reside near Lake Erie — but Ohio Valley residents apparently can look ahead only to a more stifling heat.

The scattered showers were forecast for this afternoon and tonight and there was a brief sprinkling this morning after thunderheads filled the sky.

Hawaii Bows In As State At Ceremony

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hawaii, the jewel - like chain of islands 2,400 miles west of the mainland, has brought the United States of American to an even 50.

Using a dozen pens to sign his name, President Eisenhower proclaimed its statehood Friday. It was the second time in less than a year that he performed such a historic duty — Alaska became a state Jan. 3.

As Hawaii followed Alaska into the Union, the President also signed an executive order fixing the design of the 50-star flag. With a twinkle, he remarked that he's running out of ideas for flag designs.

The new flag, which becomes official next July 4, has the same 13 red and white stripes. But its square field in the upper left corner has nine rows of stars, arranged in staggered fashion with six and five-star rows alternating.

"All 49 states will join in welcoming the new one—Hawaii—to this Union," the President said more solemnly. "We will wish for her prosperity, security, happiness, and a growing closer relationship with all of the other states.

"We know that she is ready to do her part to make this union a stronger nation—a stronger people than it was before because of her presence as a full sister to the other 49 states.

"So all of us say to her, good luck."

The President began signing the documents at 4:03 p.m. Washington time. The black and white plastic pens he used were distributed to some of those present as souvenirs. The new flag, its silken folds shining, was unfurled.

'Fair-Sized' Budget Slash Now In Sight

Congress Has OK'd 15 Of Money Bills For Current Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both branches of Congress now have passed 15 of the 16 money bills for the current financial year, and the goal of a fair-sized budget cut appears to be in sight.

The Senate cleared a $1,428,178,700 military construction measure Friday, its 15th fiscal 1960 appropriations bill, and now has only the foreign aid bill to debate. The House has acted on all 16.

Thirteen of the 16 measures actually have been sent to the White House. On these an over-all reduction of 235 million dollars below President Eisenhower's requests has been achieved.

But the biggest cut of all is almost certain to be made on foreign aid. When this measure and the two money bills still being worked on by Senate-House conferees reach the White House, the reduction is expected to exceed a billion dollars. It may reach almost a billion and a half.

The House claimed a cut of a $1,244,000,000 in its action on the foreign aid bill, although some legislators charged this was achieved partly through legerdemain with figures.

These sources contend that the budget figure of $3,436,277,000 used by the House as Eisenhower's request for foreign aid is too high, and that thus the cut is overstated.

The two other bills which have not gone to the White House are military construction and an independent offices measure. Both are in conference between the two branches. Each will be somewhat below the budget.

The Senate, on the 15 bills which it has passed, has voted about 193 million dollars more than Eisenhower requested. But the House, on the same measures, was about $1,661,000,000 under the budget.

Of the 13 bills on which Congress has completed action, 11 were reduced below the President's request. But the other two wiped out a good part of the cuts made on the 11.

McDonald Claims Steel 'Asked' USW Take Pay Cut

NEW YORK (AP) — Steelworkers Union President David J. McDonald says the new record cost-of-living index shows that the steel industry, by asking workers to freeze wages, was actually asking them to take a pay cut.

McDonald made his statement Friday. Despite several rumors of settlement, it appeared both sides weren't much closer together than when the strike began, 39 days ago.

McDonald, who has been out of negotiations for two weeks, comes back on Wednesday.

The steel industry claims that in refusing to grant wage demands of the union it is holding the line against inflation. The union claims wage increases for steelworkers have traditionally followed inflation—not caused it.

McDonald, who has been out of the steel talks because he said he felt they weren't making any progress, cited the announcement of a record cost-of-living index:

"It is significant," he said, "that the peak figure made public today has come after a full year period when regular steelworker wage rates have not increased in the slightest.

In Pittsburgh, a union statement said that the cost of living increase in just the past few months would require an increase of two cents an hour just to restore steel wages to last year's levels, in terms of purchasing power.

The union seeks a 15-cent hourly package increase for each year of any new contract. Wage rates before the strike average $3.11 an hour.

McDonald Claims Steel 'Asked' USW Take Pay Cut

NEW YORK (AP) — Steelworkers Union President David J. McDonald says the new record cost-of-living index shows that the steel industry, by asking workers to freeze wages, was actually asking them to take a pay cut.

McDonald made his statement Friday. Despite several rumors of settlement, it appeared both sides weren't much closer together than when the strike began, 39 days ago.

McDonald, who has been out of negotiations for two weeks, comes back on Wednesday.

The steel industry claims that in refusing to grant wage demands of the union it is holding the line against inflation. The union claims wage increases for steelworkers have traditionally followed inflation—not caused it.

McDonald, who has been out of the steel talks because he said he felt they weren't making any progress, cited the announcement of a record cost-of-living index:

"It is significant," he said, "that the peak figure made public today has come after a full year period when regular steelworker wage rates have not increased in the slightest.

In Pittsburgh, a union statement said that the cost of living increase in just the past few months would require an increase of two cents an hour just to restore steel wages to last year's levels, in terms of purchasing power.

The union seeks a 15-cent hourly package increase for each year of any new contract. Wage rates before the strike average $3.11 an hour.

Classes Begin Sept. 1

Rural Schools Prepare To Resume

Columbiana County's four local school districts and Franklin Township School at Summitville will enroll approximately 5,550 pupils in the 15 buildings when classes resume Sept. 1.

All the districts plan teachers' meetings Monday, Aug. 31, and a full schedule of classes will be handled on Tuesday, Sept. 1, for students, Supt. James L. McBride said today.

BEAVER LOCAL School District, with schools on Route 7, north of East Liverpool, Calcutta, Elkton, Oak Grove, Rogers and West Point, will have a total enrollment of 2,100 students.

A breakdown shows Calcutta, 400; Elkton, 135, Oak Grove, 45; Rogers, 140, and West Point, 150 in the first through fourth grades, and fifth through eighth grades at Beaver Local Public School, 725, and high school, 515.

The personnel includes an executive head, three full-time principals and 78 other teachers. There are 26 buses and drivers, 2 mechanics, and 14 cafeteria workers.

Beaver Local School District is adding rooms to all of its buildings, with two each at Rogers, Elkton and West Point, along with cafeterias, while Calcutta has two classroom additions, multi - purpose room and kitchen. The high school is getting two rooms, a general office room and large all-purpose room while four rooms and a faculty room are being provided at the grade building.

ALL THE rooms in the various schools have been cleaned and general repairs were made during the summer to have everything ready for the opening of school.

United Local School on Route 9 north of Hanoverton expects enrollment to reach 880 in the grades 1 through 8, and 320 high school students. The district has an executive head, two principals and 45 teachers, 2 part-time. There are 16 buses and drivers, one mechanic and 5 cafeteria workers.

All rooms have been cleaned and washed and some general repairs were made.

D. W. Gates, United Local superintendent, said the buses will follow the same routes and time for pickup as last term. The buses will start from the school at 7:50 a. m. Classes will dismiss daily at 3:40 p. m., the same as last year. The cafeteria will operate the first day.

STUDENTS new to the community may register next week at the school. Those entering the first grade must be 6 on or before Nov. 1.

Southern Local School District, with five schools — two at Salineville, Highlandtown, No. 16 and Wayne — expects 860 students in the first grades 1 through 8, and 240 in Salineville High School. The personnel consists of an executive head and four principals, plus 37 teachers. The district operates 10 buses. There are four cafeterias with five cooks. General repairs in all the schools, along with the cleaning, washing and painting of some rooms were completed during the summer.

Fairfield - Waterford School District in its second year of consolidation, has an estimated 755 students, kindergarten through the eighth grade, and 225 in the high school. There are an executive head, two principals, a guidance instructor and 38 teachers.

Twelve drivers will operate as many buses and six cooks will staff the two cafeterias.

THE DISTRICT ALSO painted and redecorated, partitioned two rooms and made major furnace repairs at the Fairfield School. The district has submitted a bond issue up to construct a new high school. This is the only county school that will open on Eastern Standard Time.

Franklin Local School District at Summitville anticipates about 150 students in the first through eighth grades. This is the county's only eight-year school. The district employs a principal and four teachers, operates two school buses and a cafeteria with one cook.

Safety Appeal Cites School Bus Return

LISBON — Approximately 80 school buses of the county school system will be back on the roads starting Tuesday, Sept. 1, between 7-9 a. m. and 3-5 p. m.

Along with buses from exempted village and city school districts, they will make extra traffic around most any turn, according to James L. McBride, county school superintendent.

"Over 5,000 children of the rural school system will be on the roads twice a day for a long time — they are precious cargo and drivers should be extra careful during the hours of school bus operations," McBride appealed.

Enrollment Increase Of 80 Seen At Lisbon

LISBON — An enrollment increase of 80 is expected when Lisbon schools open Tuesday, Sept. 8, with a total attendance of 1,522.

The McKinley and Lincoln Schools, kindergarten through seventh grades, expect 1,023 students with 499 to attend the 8th through 12th grades in high school.

The board employs 61 teachers, including a superintendent, 3 principals, psychologist and hearing specialist, seven bus drivers and 5 workers for two cafeterias.

A six-room addition is being added to Lincoln School but it is not expected to be completed before Oct. 15. The library and chemistry rooms in the high school have been modernized. Most of the high school has been repainted. A new roof is being installed on the high school and should be completed in mid-September.

Teachers will meet Friday, Sept. 4, with full-day classes to start Sept. 8.

Proof Required For Vaccinations

Pupils of any grade of high school or elementary schools in the county school system, who have been vaccinated against small pox and immunized against polio, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus, should take a written statement of that fact to the school principal the first day of school, according to James L. McBride, county superintendent.

Perhaps the student has had some of these shots but not all, then the statement should relate just what shots the child has had and what he is in the process of receiving.

Forms will be sent home with the students the first day of school for the parents to fill out. These must be returned promptly. The answer to these questions will give school authorities a record of such immunizations for the schools files.

Students who have not had the complete series of shots must obtain them promptly and bring statements that they are in the process of obtaining these shots, or such sudents will have to be excluded from school until they do comply with the law, McBride said.

18,000 Bobby Soxers Greet Idol 'Kookie'

CHICAGO (AP)—They came to worship their idol Kookie. "This," he sighed, "is Real Antsville."

Some fainted, others sobbed with delight and still others surged toward him to gaze into his face, crowned with a crop of curly hair.

And so went the mass love affair between Ed "Kookie" Byrnes and 18,000 cheering bobby soxers Friday at Midway Airport, signalling his Chicago arrival.

The singing and acting star smiled, waved and blew kisses to his teen-age flock, described by police as the largest crowd ever to greet an entertainer at the airport.

They showered Kookie with a barrage of combs—a reminder of his TV hair-combing routine role on 77 Sunset Strip. The bobby sox set was rewarded.

"This is Real antsville," said Kookie, 26, describing the crowd. "All these youngsters coming out to see me is the maximum - utmost."

Momentarily, away from his frantic worshipers, Kookie confided to newsmen:

"But enough of this Kookie - talk. This isn't how I, Edward J. Byrnes, really talk. I like to do it for the teen-agers because I think each new generation usually finds something all its own.

"Jive-talk gives the boys and girls of today something private and personal through which they can communicate with one another — to be outside the adult world which surrounds them."

Ike-Khrushchev Talks Draw Adlai's Comment

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson, back from Europe, says the pending exchange of visits between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is regarded abroad as a "great achievement" for the Soviet leader.

Stevenson held an hour - long press conference at Idlewild Airport Friday.

He reiterated that he was not a candidate for the presidency in 1960.

On the forthcoming Eisenhower-Khrushchev meetings, he said he detected in Eruope "some anxiety about secret diplomacy, but I am sure the President's visit to Europe will relieve that anxiety."

Wool Growers To Vote Next Month On Deduction Plan

LISBON — Everett A. Fishel, chairman of the Columbiana County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, today urged wool growers to cast a ballot in the September referendum on the lamb and wool marketing development program to insure the widest possible representative vote.

The outcome of the referendum, to determine whether deductions will continue to be made from payments under the wool incentive program, should reflect the attitude of the many different types of producers throughout the nation, he said.

While the primary basis for approval will be the volume of production represented in the referendum, consideration will also be given to the number of producers voting as an indication of representative producer approval or disapproval.

To prompt as large a turnout as possible, all of September has been set as the voting period. A ballot will be mailed to each known producer in the county, but any producer not receiving a ballot may contact the county ASC office.

To further encourage a large total vote, the voted ballots may be returned by mail to the county office.

In Columbiana County, about 175 producers are eligible to vote. The national total is around 300,000.

The deductions from payments make up a fund used by the American Sheep Producers' Council, a producer organization, in carrying out a program of advertising, promotion, and related activities on lamb and wool under an agreement with the secretary of agriculture.

The agreement will be continued for 3 more years if approved in the referendum. Deductions under the new agreement would not exceed 1 per cent per pound from shorn wool payments and 5 cents per hundredweight from unshorn lamb payments. Deductions have been made at these rates since 1955, Fishel said.

Ballots also are now being mailed to producers in Beaver County, Chairman G. M. Swick of the Beaver ASC said.

Natural Gas Rate Hikes Suspended Until Dec. 1

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Power Commission Friday suspended until Dec. 1 wholesale natural gas rate increases amounting to about $747,200 proposed by two pipeline companies serving areas in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York.

The two companies, the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., Pittsburgh, and Home Gas Co., also of Pittsburgh, are subsidiaries of the Columbia Gas System.

Manufacturers filed for a $604,600, or 1½ per cent, annual increase. It seeks a 6¾ per cent rate of return instead of 6¼ currently being allowed. It contends increased operating costs make higher rates necessary.

The firm is now collecting prior proposed increases subject to refund under earlier proceedings.

Jury Subpoenaes Hotel Records Of 2 Ohio Senators

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Hotel records of State Sen. Lowell C. Fess of Yellow Springs and former State Sen. Raymond E. Hildebrand of Toledo were subpoenaed Friday by the Franklin County Grand Jury, which is investigating alleged payment of legislators' hotel bills by lobbyists.

County Prosecutor Earl W. Allison said he subpoenaed records of the Deshler Hilton Hotel here for information between Jan. 1, 1955 and Jan. 1, 1959.

The prosecutor said he hoped to wind up the special probe shortly after Sept. 1, the deadline for lobbyists to file expense accounts pertaining to activities during the recently ended Legislature.

The grand jury previously subpoenaed hotel records of Democratic State Sens. Anthony O. Calabrese of Cleveland and Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry, State Rep. James McGettrick, Cleveland Democrat, and Robert Scott of Cambridge, lobbyist for the Ohio Coal Producers Assn.

Flying Watchmaker Bids For Record Flight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Peter Gluckman, 33, the flying watchmaker, soars away today on his most ambitious journey — a solo world flight in a single-engine plane to chalk up a world record.

A sign on his watch shop reads: "Back on Sept. 8 (I hope)."

Gluckmann, a 6-foot 240-pound German-born American, has the assurance of the world's official flying organization — the Federation Aeronautique International —that if he makes it, it will be the only official globe-circling flight ever made under federation rules.

McBride, county superintendent.

Perhaps the student has had some of these shots but not all, then the statement should relate just what shots the child has had and what he is in the process of receiving.

Forms will be sent home with the students the first day of school for the parents to fill out. These must be returned promptly. The answer to these questions will give school authorities a record of such immunizations for the schools files.

Students who have not had the complete series of shots must obtain them promptly and bring statements that they are in the process of obtaining these shots, or such sudents will have to be excluded from school until they do comply with the law, McBride said.

Wool Growers To Vote Next Month On Deduction Plan

LISBON — Everett A. Fishel, chairman of the Columbiana County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, today urged wool growers to cast a ballot in the September referendum on the lamb and wool marketing development program to insure the widest possible representative vote.

The outcome of the referendum, to determine whether deductions will continue to be made from payments under the wool incentive program, should reflect the attitude of the many different types of producers throughout the nation, he said.

While the primary basis for approval will be the volume of production represented in the referendum, consideration will also be given to the number of producers voting as an indication of representative producer approval or disapproval.

To prompt as large a turnout as possible, all of September has been set as the voting period. A ballot will be mailed to each known producer in the county, but any producer not receiving a ballot may contact the county ASC office.

To further encourage a large total vote, the voted ballots may be returned by mail to the county office.

In Columbiana County, about 175 producers are eligible to vote. The national total is around 300,000.

The deductions from payments make up a fund used by the American Sheep Producers' Council, a producer organization, in carrying out a program of advertising, promotion, and related activities on lamb and wool under an agreement with the secretary of agriculture.

The agreement will be continued for 3 more years if approved in the referendum. Deductions under the new agreement would not exceed 1 per cent per pound from shorn wool payments and 5 cents per hundredweight from unshorn lamb payments. Deductions have been made at these rates since 1955, Fishel said.

Ballots also are now being mailed to producers in Beaver County, Chairman G. M. Swick of the Beaver ASC said.

Natural Gas Rate Hikes Suspended Until Dec. 1

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Power Commission Friday suspended until Dec. 1 wholesale natural gas rate increases amounting to about $747,200 proposed by two pipeline companies serving areas in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York.

The two companies, the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., Pittsburgh, and Home Gas Co., also of Pittsburgh, are subsidiaries of the Columbia Gas System.

Manufacturers filed for a $604,600, or 1½ per cent, annual increase. It seeks a 6¾ per cent rate of return instead of 6¼ currently being allowed. It contends increased operating costs make higher rates necessary.

The firm is now collecting prior proposed increases subject to refund under earlier proceedings.

Jury Subpoenaes Hotel Records Of 2 Ohio Senators

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Hotel records of State Sen. Lowell C. Fess of Yellow Springs and former State Sen. Raymond E. Hildebrand of Toledo were subpoenaed Friday by the Franklin County Grand Jury, which is investigating alleged payment of legislators' hotel bills by lobbyists.

County Prosecutor Earl W. Allison said he subpoenaed records of the Deshler Hilton Hotel here for information between Jan. 1, 1955 and Jan. 1, 1959.

The prosecutor said he hoped to wind up the special probe shortly after Sept. 1, the deadline for lobbyists to file expense accounts pertaining to activities during the recently ended Legislature.

The grand jury previously subpoenaed hotel records of Democratic State Sens. Anthony O. Calabrese of Cleveland and Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry, State Rep. James McGettrick, Cleveland Democrat, and Robert Scott of Cambridge, lobbyist for the Ohio Coal Producers Assn.

Flying Watchmaker Bids For Record Flight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Peter Gluckman, 33, the flying watchmaker, soars away today on his most ambitious journey — a solo world flight in a single-engine plane to chalk up a world record.

A sign on his watch shop reads: "Back on Sept. 8 (I hope)."

Gluckmann, a 6-foot 240-pound German-born American, has the assurance of the world's official flying organization — the Federation Aeronautique International —that if he makes it, it will be the only official globe-circling flight ever made under federation rules.

18,000 Bobby Soxers Greet Idol 'Kookie'

CHICAGO (AP)—They came to worship their idol Kookie. "This," he sighed, "is Real Antsville."

Some fainted, others sobbed with delight and still others surged toward him to gaze into his face, crowned with a crop of curly hair.

And so went the mass love affair between Ed "Kookie" Byrnes and 18,000 cheering bobby soxers Friday at Midway Airport, signalling his Chicago arrival.

The singing and acting star smiled, waved and blew kisses to his teen-age flock, described by police as the largest crowd ever to greet an entertainer at the airport.

They showered Kookie with a barrage of combs—a reminder of his TV hair-combing routine role on 77 Sunset Strip. The bobby sox set was rewarded.

"This is Real antsville," said Kookie, 26, describing the crowd. "All these youngsters coming out to see me is the maximum - utmost."

Momentarily, away from his frantic worshipers, Kookie confided to newsmen:

"But enough of this Kookie - talk. This isn't how I, Edward J. Byrnes, really talk. I like to do it for the teen-agers because I think each new generation usually finds something all its own.

"Jive-talk gives the boys and girls of today something private and personal through which they can communicate with one another — to be outside the adult world which surrounds them."

Ike-Khrushchev Talks Draw Adlai's Comment

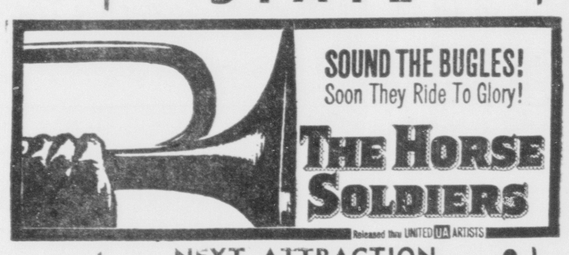

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson, back from Europe, says the pending exchange of visits between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is regarded abroad as a "great achievement" for the Soviet leader.

Stevenson held an hour - long press conference at Idlewild Airport Friday.

He reiterated that he was not a candidate for the presidency in 1960.

On the forthcoming Eisenhower-Khrushchev meetings, he said he detected in Eruope "some anxiety about secret diplomacy, but I am sure the President's visit to Europe will relieve that anxiety."

'Bigger And Better Than Ever'

The annual Columbiana County Fair will open its doors next week at the grounds in Lisbon.

The fair has become an institution and an important phase of community life for county residents. It offers many things to many people — old and young alike. There will be entertainment; there will be the spirit of friendly competition; there will be displays of the best in farm products, reflecting the ever-broadening know-how of those who work with and love the soil; there will be the glamor and the thrill of the midway.

Increased space has been allotted for exhibits this year, the horse-racing purses are higher and other improvements in the overall program will be noted by those who take advantage of the opportunity to attend.

The improvements are in line with the annual boast of the board of directors that "it will be bigger and better than ever this year."

This can be said without fear of successful contradiction when speaking of the 1959 Columbiana County Fair.

Blessings On Steven And Anne

In spite of Steven Rockefeller's fine academic record at Princeton and the obvious interest of his bride in education, we doubt that the two of them together could understand why their courtship and wedding made so much news.

Moreover, we are sure they had no time to think about it, other than to wonder why so many newspapermen showed up in Sogne, Norway, for the wedding. But it is something to think about.

The two young people, themselves, may want to think about it sometime. As brother Rodman Rockefeller said the other day, referring to Steven's adroit handling of the newsmen assigned to cover the wedding, "There's the politician of the family."

That's why Steven and Anne made so much news—politics. Otherwise, they would have gone on being what they essentially are, just a young man and woman who have had a somewhat unusual romance. The fact Anne worked in the Rockefeller household while learning to speak English and that Steven later followed her home to Norway to make her his bride is a good news story. But the fact Steven's father is involved deeply in presidential politics in the United States makes the story 10 times better. That is what Steven and Anne need to understand.

THERE IS AN insatiable demand in politics at all levels of government for personalities who command sympathy as well as interest. There is, at the same time, boundless curiosity about people who aspire for political preference. Everything about them becomes news.

This is why so many people who want to become better known take a flyer in politics to turn the trick. It is why Nelson Rockefeller, who previously had been only one of the grandsons of John D. Rockefeller, has emerged as one of the most talked-about men of the day. He and Vice President Nixon seem likely at this instant to be the only serious contenders for the Republican presidential nomination next year. One of them, in the present pattern of national politics that divides responsibility between a chief executive of one party and a Congress dominated by the other party, is likely to be the next president of the United States.

MOREOVER, in the emerging pattern of speculation, the more experienced might be nominated for the presidency and the less experienced for the vice presidency, on the assumption that the vice presidency is properly the place where presidential aspirants learn the job.

This may prove to be President Eisenhower's most lasting contribution to the procedure of administration; that he was willing to train his party's vice president for the presidency, something that never had been done before. A Nixon-Rockefeller ticket next year would have a powerful pull at the polls.

Steven and Anne need to understand, or they will need to understand some day, why all those hundreds of newspapermen showed up for their wedding in faraway Sogne.

It was politics—the pleasant kind of politics that makes people want to know all about the nice side of people who seek political preference. There's nothing to beat a wedding.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

The choral finale of the Ninth Symphony swelled:

"Do the millions, His creation,
Know Him and His works of love?
Seek Him in the heights above.
Brothers! Brothers! . . ."

There was a roar of applause. Yet, the composer could not hear it, for he was deaf. Beethoven started to lose his hearing when he was 30, before he had completed his First Symphony. Driven nearly to despair, he wrote: "It is . . . for an artist more difficult than for any one else." Yet, loving his art, he refused to surrender—"I will take fate by the throat; it shall not wholly overcome me"—and went on to compose his greatest works, though deaf!

During periods of emotional stress he was accustomed to write prayers, such as: "Spirit of Spirits, who spreading Thyself through all space and through endless time . . . from chaos didst Thou command eternal order to arise . . . What moved Thee to manifest Thy power and boundless goodness? . . . Wisdom beyond measure! . . . Oh, direct my mind! . . . Oh, raise it up from this grievous depth."

War Of Words

By David Lawrence

Appeasement Is Danger Behind Talking Too Much

Domestic politics within every one of the major countries is today playing a significant part in world affairs. Thus, it is of tremendous help, politically speaking, to Prime Minister Macmillan for President Eisenhower to be visiting Great Britain at this time — just a few weeks before the British elections. It has been announced, for instance, that Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Macmillan will appear together and chat informally over a television network covering the British Isles.

David Lawrence

This will tend to reinforce the belief that the heads of the two governments are close and friendly and that it would be a mistake to disturb the relationship by a change in government at London.

None of this is, of course, deliberate. It's quite coincidental. But it is interesting to note how enthusiastic some of the British papers are about the "new Ike."

For months they have been giving the impression that he is a "sick man" and a "puppet." Suddenly they find him a new personality — healthy, vigorous and imbued with new qualities of leadership.

What's happened is that Ike hasn't really changed at all but he now is doing some of the things the British press have long been advocating — moving a bit closer to Khrushchev and engaging in more and more "conciliatory" gestures in relation to the Soviet Union.

ACTUALLY, when the chips are down, the British people as a whole don't feel a bit different than do Americans about appeasement policies, though some of the leaders on both sides of the Atlantic think there is a virtue in continuous talk.

The reason the conservatives in England persistently advocate it is that they know the Socialist Labor opposition would get considerable political mileage out of the issue if they didn't.

In France domestic politics influences Gen. De Gaule toward more and more nationalism. One tactic is his adoption of a cavalier attitude toward the United States.

It's important somehow to him to create an image of a strong and militant France. The general, though somewhat clumsily, is building up a public opinion for his nationalistic philosophy.

President Eisenhower is well aware of the nuances of the problem and his trip to Paris is designed to show that the United States isn't adverse to sending its President all the way to Paris just to chat with the French President. The visit is bound to assist De Gaulle with his own public opinion.

Also, President Eisenhower's meetings with the German Chancellor and the Italian Premier will unquestionably help each of them in their internal politics.

As for the United States, the implications of the Eisenhower-Nixon trips to the Soviet Union and the Khrushchev tour of America are by no means clear, but it is interesting to note the comments privately being made by some of the Democratic politicians.

While they hesitate to predict whether the episode will turn out to be an asset or a liability politically, they point to the anticlimax that came after the "summit" conference at Geneva in 1955.

THE PICTURES of Ike and the Soviet leaders fraternizing didn't sit well with the American public when it was discovered afterwards that the Moscow government meanwhile had been supplying arms to Nasser and stirring up trouble in the Middle East.

Some such move by the Communists might again destroy the supposedly good effects of an Eisenhower visit to the Soviet Union and tend to obscure the benefits now being obtained in public opinion polls by Vice President Nixon as a result of his tour of Russia.

Broadly speaking, the peace issue is important to all political parties in this country as well as in Britain. The people as a whole crave peace and hence they look with favor on anyone who apparently is trying hard to maintain it.

If a politician is too rigid about it, he finds himself attacked by his opponents. Doubtless the Soviets have strategists who advise them about such matters and that is why they are constantly expecting the democracies, especially the United States, to make concessions.

It is true that many editorials in the American press have stressed the talk idea as harmless but the Communists are themselves needless talkers and believe they can wear out the American and British diplomatists and eventually bring about changes in favor of the Communist policies.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST is the politics behind Khrushchev's own antics. He has wanted a summit conference to enhance his own standing inside the Soviet Union.

Fraternizing with President Eisenhower in Washington means an opportunity for big publicity inside the Soviet Union portraying Khrushchev as a world leader.

The Soviet people, too, want peace and the Premier is bound to get a further lease on governmental power and stave off revolution if he can reduce the cost of armament and improve the standard of living inside the Soviet Union.

So the political goals, while on their face the product of selfish ambition, do happen by coincidence to postpone big crises at least temporarily.

In the long run appeasement leads to war and that's the real danger in political motivations and compromises on basic principle.

Gov. DiSalle Still Pleads His Case

The lively discussion of capital punishment that Gov. DiSalle set off among Ohioans this year with a proposal to get rid of the death penalty will be continued in a new setting next Monday.

The governor will present the case against capital punishment in a panel discussion at the American Bar Assn. convention in Miami. The legal profession in the United States is giving careful attention to the subject.

Remembering the consensus among those who opposed the move to bar the death penalty in Ohio, Gov. DiSalle could do worse than point out the possibility of a time cure as one solution to the problems posed by capital punishment.

Public opinion is turning against the death penalty. But a cautious segment of the opinion against capital punishment for some crimes feels that it must be available for use against perpetrators of other crimes.

Thus, the murderer of a policeman doing his duty, deserves death, but the murderer who committed a crime of passion against a personal enemy after long provocation is in a different category. A kidnaper or a traitor deserves death, but a highwayman who lost his nerve and shot and killed someone in panic probably will draw a recommendation of mercy.

The time is in sight when the death penalty rarely will be inflicted, even though it continues to be available.

Yet, every proposal to eliminate it completely draws the resistance of those who believe its presence in the statutes is the least society can do to show its disapproval of heinous crimes that demand the most extreme punishment possible. If it were not for the Constitutional prohibition of "cruel and unusual punishments," it is easy to imagine that kidnapers, traitors and murderers who premeditate their crimes might be drawn and quartered, boiled in oil, dragged behind wild horses, or broken on the rack, to show the depth of public anger.

Eventually, as opinion now is shaping up, capital punishment will be used only in the rarest instances; it will have ceased to be a problem even for lawyers. Its use is being restricted not only by custom but by law. It is possible that the issue will have disappeared in another 25 years.

Hoffa Loses Transportation Battle

By Victo r Riesel

UNITY HOUSE, Pa.

A man who has never lost a fight has never fought one and Jimmy Hoffa, despite all those tricks in his little black bag, is no exception. He has just lost whatever opportunity he had of becoming America's transportation czar. There has been kicked out of his hands all chances for building his Conference on Transportation Unity into a one-man network of all air, land and sea commercial and passenger vehicles.

Victor Riesel

Hoffa's power plan for controlling everything from huge harbors to small river boats and bread trucks pivoted upon domination of the eastern Longshoremen's Union.

Without those 60,000 dockwallopers, Hoffa's dream is as full of holes as he is of muscle.

Now the old pros of the old AFL have shown Hoffa they don't need to train to take on his boys. This they did by virtually taking in the International Longshoremen's Assn. at the AFL-CIO executive council session here.

Without the once turbulent Longshoremen, Hoffa never can get real transport power all along the East and Gulf Coasts. First he loses swiftly in New York, through which passes some 16-billion-dollars worth of cargo each year. This is the big "package" port, the bulk cargo door to Canada, Europe, the Mediterranean, Africa, the Near East, the Suez and as far as India.

IN BROOKLYN, too, is the Defense Department's huge port of embarkation feeding virtually all our military bases outside of Asia. If Hoffa ever could have ordered the Port of New York struck, he could have paralyzed rail and road traffic across half America.

Without the International Longshoremen's Assn., which Hoffa was pressuring to merge with his Teamsters, little boy blue has no influence in the seldom discussed port of Baltimore. This has long been a clean, efficient complex of docks handling almost as much stuff as New York.

In addition to the bulk cargo, tremendous tonnage of coal, gravel and other such materials is hauled out of Baltimore by thousands of ships.

If ever Hoffa could have struck that port, he could have snarled the east central sector of the nation, especially the rail lines which move vast amounts of coal to the Baltimore piers.

All this Hoffa and his willowy shadow, Harold Gibbons, had thought out long ago. And when the teamsters had Harry Bridges in a pact, they thought they had the eastern Longshoremen and thus the nation's sea, rail and road transport, all ready for knotting. After that the sky literally was the limit.

FURTHERMORE, Hoffa long ago hoped to use the International Longshoremen's Assn. as the base for a sweeping southern drive.

The ILA has bases in Gulf as well as southern Atlantic ports. This is Hoffa's last frontier. Now he will have to operate alone below the Mason-Dixon.

Most bitter of what Hoffa had to swallow this week, non - drinker though he is, is the fact that the Longshoremen now will be under the direct supervision of the man Hoffa hates most, and vice versa, namely George Meany.

The AFL-CIO president is taking no chances on backsliding in the Longshoremen's Union, whose notoriety launched a thousand newspaper crusades, broadcasts and a Hollywood movie cycle.

The present leadership of the ILA has pledged the AFL-CIO high command that it will drive out the remaining hoods. Meany plans to see to it that they keep their word.

Here's how this was written into a special report submitted to the executive council here the other day: "The ILA today is not the racket - infested organization with little desire to reform that it was in 1953. It has made substantial press towards ridding itself of those ills which have degraded it and forced its expulsion from the AFL.

"Secondly, in as far as your committee has been able to ascertain from the information available to it, the ILA has made substantial progress in the elimination from offices and positions of power and trust within the organization those who have despoiled its name and have proven to be unfit to guide its destinies as a trade union organization.

"While further progress is indicated, your committee believes that it can best be accomplished with the aid and assistance of the AFL-CIO.

"The OLA has pledged a willingness and intent, with the aid and support of the AFL-CIO, to root out any remaining malefactors and men of evil repute who may be lurking within its official family on a national and local level."

THOSE "LURKING" MEN are on a little list here. No insider denies that these hoods still are on the piers. But the war is on against them and they happen to be the allies of Hoffa's men in New York and other big eastern ports.

So just when Hoffa thought he was closing one big frontal battle, meaning the Senate racket-busting committee, he is watching the opening of a second front.

The trouble with Hoffa is that he always counts out his opponents before they hatch their plans.

Hoffa's Political Plans

By Raymond Moley

The entrance of James R. Hoffa's Teamsters into the political arena is greeted by AFL-CIO labor-in-politics leaders with the lack of enthusiasm displayed by a family of white rabbits when a polecat moves into their hutch for the winter.

The AFL-CIO COPE is a pretty slick outfit and it has been responsible for electing a goodly number of senators and house members as well as hundreds of state legislators.

While it spends a lot of money, its strength is mostly in the skillful use of manpower in getting voters registered and to the polls.

It is a political rule of long standing that while money is essential to a good working organization, too much of it or too vulgar a display thereof is a deadly peril.

HOFFA'S PLANS seem to be concern with gathering a huge war chest exacted in one way or another from members.

His approach is so grandiose and crude that it might set in motion a public swell against labor-in-politics generally and cause many captive legislators to stir uneasily when 1960 comes around. Moreover, Hoffa's big union is an outcast and an enemy of the AFL-CIO.

There seems to be some confusion in Hoffa's mind about how much he is planning to raise.

However, on Aug. 13 he told an audience of Teamsters that he plans to ask his executive board to approve an assessment of $1.25 a year as a minimum and five million dollars as a maximum.

The former plan would bring in something more than two million.

If the plans works, let us say that the fund will be three million.

No one can estimate what the AFL-CIO rasises and spends because its money is collected in two ways. There are direct voluntary gifts from members which never meet the costs, and there are "educational" contributions taken directly from the general funds of unions.

The difference is nominal rather than real, because the "educational" business differs in no significant respect from the activities of a political party.

When an indictment against the UAW was before the Supreme Court 2½ years ago, Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., attorney for the UAW, said that there could be no line drawn between collective bargaining and politics. Hence, it is the practice to use dues exacted for collective bargaining to help elect friendly public officials.

But the sum proposed by Hoffa is formidable in terms of what a national party raises and spends. In a congressional election neither national party spends as much as the minimum of Hoffa's estimates.

No one can tell the cost to the AFL-CIO in a congressional election. Year-around "education" and also tremendous manpower are covered in the ordinary expenses of many unions.

If Hoffa believes that he can, by raising a big fund, effectually perform in the 1960 election, he is not as smart as he has been in escaping the clutches of the law in other respects.

Effective political action requires long preparation, careful organization, training of workers and intimate relations with the political people in the many communities concerned.

THE LABOR REFORM legislation before Congress — any of the bills proposed — fails to reach labor-in-politics. Such regulation will require vastly more study, discussion and legislative drafting than has been expended on the present bills.

It is a complex problem to differentiate between "education" and politics. Also, any such legislation would have to be devised to escape the First Amendment ax of this Supreme Court.

The Hoodlums Go To Washington

One of the most frightening incidents in years is being hushed up in Washngton, D.C., among people who don't want to face its implications.

A New Jersey representative in the lower house of Congress, Frank Thompson Jr. of Trenton, has been made the target for an acid thrower. The incident occurred in traffic while Rep. Thompson was on his way to the Capitol.

A man leaned from a truck at a stoplight and squirted acid on the congressman. Fortunately, it hit his skin in only one place. It burned his clothes however, and marred the finish on his car. It was found to be sulphuric acid of about the same concentration as battery acid. So much for the act, which proved to be of minor consequence.

Of major consequence, on the other hand, were the implications of the act. A member of Congress had been attacked with apparent intent to terrorize, and his surmise that the attacker might have been peeved at him because of something that had happened in traffic is hard to believe. Acid-throwing is not one of the things associated with traffic temper tantrums — not yet.

It is one of the things connected with hoodlums, like the threatening phone calls Rep. Thompson's wife says he received before the showdown vote on the Landrum-Griffin bill; he voted against it. But as one of the conferees on the committee appointed to reconcile differences between this bill and the Senate's Kennedy-Ervin bill, his vote is still of critical importance. Someone evidently is reminding him of the consequences of voting wrong — and Rep. Thompson, who appears to be a man of considerable savvy in the way of the world, presumably knows who it is.

Congressmen know all about traditional pressure-bloc tactics. That is part of the survival course politicians must take in their hazardous occupation. But up until now, congressmen have not had to wonder where acid-throwers will commit their next atrocity. Hoodlums have not been bold enough to try that gambit to influence legislative decisions in Congress.

It must be crossing the mind of many a legislator who never thought about it before that the game they're playing could get mighty rough if they go ahead with it.

Fort Is Re-born

Fort Union, New Mexcio, the takeoff point for many a heart-pounding rescue by the United States cavalry, has been formally dedicated as a national monument.

The National Park Service is restoring the ruins of the fort, which stands upon rolling grazing land 60 miles northeast of Santa Fe.

Built in 1851 and abandoned 40 years later, the adobe buildings of the fort have been crumbling into the earth. Rows of adobe walls, brick chimneys and the stone jail have survived.

The brazen call of the bugle no longer sounds assembly as it did when Fort Union was the bristling symbol of United States authority on the rugged Southwestern frontier.

The fort was built soon after the New Mexico territory was won in the Mexican War. A protection for settlers and travelers, it was situated near the point where the famous Santa Fe Trail forks into the Cimarron Cutoff and the Mountain Route. The remains of hub-deep wagon ruts are a reminder of the days when more than $10 million worth of goods a year were hauled over the trail.

On Dec. 4, 1918, the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes was formally proclaimed. Later it became Yugoslavia.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Approximately 100 East Liverpool merchants participated in the 25th semi-annual observance of Dollar Day.

Miss Ruth Wisman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Wisman of Michigan Ave., returned from a two-month visit in Europe.

Health Board officials announced eight cases of smallpox were under quarantine here.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Many from Columbiana County attended the national air races in Cleveland.

A move to co-ordinate civic and service clubs throughout the county into a unit to promote safety gained momentum.

TEN YEARS AGO — A dramatization of early Biblical days was presented at Chester High School under the auspices of the Chester Lions Club.

Twenty-five high school students, who moved in the district during the summer, registered at the high school office.

Sixteen Gold Star Dairy players left for Springfield where they represented East Liverpool in the National Baseball Federation regional tournament.

'Bigger And Better Than Ever'

The annual Columbiana County Fair will open its doors next week at the grounds in Lisbon.

The fair has become an institution and an important phase of community life for county residents. It offers many things to many people — old and young alike. There will be entertainment; there will be the spirit of friendly competition; there will be displays of the best in farm products, reflecting the ever-broadening know-how of those who work with and love the soil; there will be the glamor and the thrill of the midway.

Increased space has been allotted for exhibits this year, the horse-racing purses are higher and other improvements in the overall program will be noted by those who take advantage of the opportunity to attend.

The improvements are in line with the annual boast of the board of directors that "it will be bigger and better than ever this year."

This can be said without fear of successful contradiction when speaking of the 1959 Columbiana County Fair.

Blessings On Steven And Anne

In spite of Steven Rockefeller's fine academic record at Princeton and the obvious interest of his bride in education, we doubt that the two of them together could understand why their courtship and wedding made so much news.

Moreover, we are sure they had no time to think about it, other than to wonder why so many newspapermen showed up in Sogne, Norway, for the wedding. But it is something to think about.

The two young people, themselves, may want to think about it sometime. As brother Rodman Rockefeller said the other day, referring to Steven's adroit handling of the newsmen assigned to cover the wedding, "There's the politician of the family."

That's why Steven and Anne made so much news—politics. Otherwise, they would have gone on being what they essentially are, just a young man and woman who have had a somewhat unusual romance. The fact Anne worked in the Rockefeller household while learning to speak English and that Steven later followed her home to Norway to make her his bride is a good news story. But the fact Steven's father is involved deeply in presidential politics in the United States makes the story 10 times better. That is what Steven and Anne need to understand.

THERE IS AN insatiable demand in politics at all levels of government for personalities who command sympathy as well as interest. There is, at the same time, boundless curiosity about people who aspire for political preference. Everything about them becomes news.

This is why so many people who want to become better known take a flyer in politics to turn the trick. It is why Nelson Rockefeller, who previously had been only one of the grandsons of John D. Rockefeller, has emerged as one of the most talked-about men of the day. He and Vice President Nixon seem likely at this instant to be the only serious contenders for the Republican presidential nomination next year. One of them, in the present pattern of national politics that divides responsibility between a chief executive of one party and a Congress dominated by the other party, is likely to be the next president of the United States.

MOREOVER, in the emerging pattern of speculation, the more experienced might be nominated for the presidency and the less experienced for the vice presidency, on the assumption that the vice presidency is properly the place where presidential aspirants learn the job.

This may prove to be President Eisenhower's most lasting contribution to the procedure of administration; that he was willing to train his party's vice president for the presidency, something that never had been done before. A Nixon-Rockefeller ticket next year would have a powerful pull at the polls.

Steven and Anne need to understand, or they will need to understand some day, why all those hundreds of newspapermen showed up for their wedding in faraway Sogne.

It was politics—the pleasant kind of politics that makes people want to know all about the nice side of people who seek political preference. There's nothing to beat a wedding.

Gov. DiSalle Still Pleads His Case

The lively discussion of capital punishment that Gov. DiSalle set off among Ohioans this year with a proposal to get rid of the death penalty will be continued in a new setting next Monday.

The governor will present the case against capital punishment in a panel discussion at the American Bar Assn. convention in Miami. The legal profession in the United States is giving careful attention to the subject.

Remembering the consensus among those who opposed the move to bar the death penalty in Ohio, Gov. DiSalle could do worse than point out the possibility of a time cure as one solution to the problems posed by capital punishment.

Public opinion is turning against the death penalty. But a cautious segment of the opinion against capital punishment for some crimes feels that it must be available for use against perpetrators of other crimes.

Thus, the murderer of a policeman doing his duty, deserves death, but the murderer who committed a crime of passion against a personal enemy after long provocation is in a different category. A kidnaper or a traitor deserves death, but a highwayman who lost his nerve and shot and killed someone in panic probably will draw a recommendation of mercy.

The time is in sight when the death penalty rarely will be inflicted, even though it continues to be available.

Yet, every proposal to eliminate it completely draws the resistance of those who believe its presence in the statutes is the least society can do to show its disapproval of heinous crimes that demand the most extreme punishment possible. If it were not for the Constitutional prohibition of "cruel and unusual punishments," it is easy to imagine that kidnapers, traitors and murderers who premeditate their crimes might be drawn and quartered, boiled in oil, dragged behind wild horses, or broken on the rack, to show the depth of public anger.

Eventually, as opinion now is shaping up, capital punishment will be used only in the rarest instances; it will have ceased to be a problem even for lawyers. Its use is being restricted not only by custom but by law. It is possible that the issue will have disappeared in another 25 years.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

The choral finale of the Ninth Symphony swelled:

"Do the millions, His creation,
Know Him and His works of love?
Seek Him in the heights above.
Brothers! Brothers! . . ."

There was a roar of applause. Yet, the composer could not hear it, for he was deaf. Beethoven started to lose his hearing when he was 30, before he had completed his First Symphony. Driven nearly to despair, he wrote: "It is . . . for an artist more difficult than for any one else." Yet, loving his art, he refused to surrender—"I will take fate by the throat; it shall not wholly overcome me"—and went on to compose his greatest works, though deaf!

During periods of emotional stress he was accustomed to write prayers, such as: "Spirit of Spirits, who spreading Thyself through all space and through endless time . . . from chaos didst Thou command eternal order to arise . . . What moved Thee to manifest Thy power and boundless goodness? . . . Wisdom beyond measure! . . . Oh, direct my mind! . . . Oh, raise it up from this grievous depth."

Hoffa Loses Transportation Battle

By Victor Riesel

UNITY HOUSE, Pa.

A man who has never lost a fight has never fought one and Jimmy Hoffa, despite all those tricks in his little black bag, is no exception. He has just lost whatever opportunity he had of becoming America's transportation czar. There has been kicked out of his hands all chances for building his Conference on Transportation Unity into a one-man network of all air, land and sea commercial and passenger vehicles.

Victor Riesel

Hoffa's power plan for controlling everything from huge harbors to small river boats and bread trucks pivoted upon domination of the eastern Longshoremen's Union.

Without those 60,000 dockwallopers, Hoffa's dream is as full of holes as he is of muscle.

Now the old pros of the old AFL have shown Hoffa they don't need to train to take on his boys. This they did by virtually taking in the International Longshoremen's Assn. at the AFL-CIO executive council session here.

Without the once turbulent Longshoremen, Hoffa never can get real transport power all along the East and Gulf Coasts. First he loses swiftly in New York, through which passes some 16-billion-dollars worth of cargo each year. This is the big "package" port, the bulk cargo door to Canada, Europe, the Mediterranean, Africa, the Near East, the Suez and as far as India.

IN BROOKLYN, too, is the Defense Department's huge port of embarkation feeding virtually all our military bases outside of Asia. If Hoffa ever could have ordered the Port of New York struck, he could have paralyzed rail and road traffic across half America.

Without the International Longshoremen's Assn., which Hoffa was pressuring to merge with his Teamsters, little boy blue has no influence in the seldom discussed port of Baltimore. This has long been a clean, efficient complex of docks handling almost as much stuff as New York.

In addition to the bulk cargo, tremendous tonnage of coal, gravel and other such materials is hauled out of Baltimore by thousands of ships.

If ever Hoffa could have struck that port, he could have snarled the east central sector of the nation, especially the rail lines which move vast amounts of coal to the Baltimore piers.

All this Hoffa and his willowy shadow, Harold Gibbons, had thought out long ago. And when the teamsters had Harry Bridges in a pact, they thought they had the eastern Longshoremen and thus the nation's sea, rail and road transport, all ready for knotting. After that the sky literally was the limit.

FURTHERMORE, Hoffa long ago hoped to use the International Longshoremen's Assn. as the base for a sweeping southern drive.

The ILA has bases in Gulf as well as southern Atlantic ports. This is Hoffa's last frontier. Now he will have to operate alone below the Mason-Dixon.

Most bitter of what Hoffa had to swallow this week, non - drinker though he is, is the fact that the Longshoremen now will be under the direct supervision of the man Hoffa hates most, and vice versa, namely George Meany.

The AFL-CIO president is taking no chances on backsliding in the Longshoremen's Union, whose notoriety launched a thousand newspaper crusades, broadcasts and a Hollywood movie cycle.

The present leadership of the ILA has pledged the AFL-CIO high command that it will drive out the remaining hoods. Meany plans to see to it that they keep their word.

Here's how this was written into a special report submitted to the executive council here the other day: "The ILA today is not the racket - infested organization with little desire to reform that it was in 1953. It has made substantial press towards ridding itself of those ills which have degraded it and forced its expulsion from the AFL.

"Secondly, in as far as your committee has been able to ascertain from the information available to it, the ILA has made substantial progress in the elimination from offices and positions of power and trust within the organization those who have despoiled its name and have proven to be unfit to guide its destinies as a trade union organization.

"While further progress is indicated, your committee believes that it can best be accomplished with the aid and assistance of the AFL-CIO.

"The OLA has pledged a willingness and intent, with the aid and support of the AFL-CIO, to root out any remaining malefactors and men of evil repute who may be lurking within its official family on a national and local level."

THOSE "LURKING" MEN are on a little list here. No insider denies that these hoods still are on the piers. But the war is on against them and they happen to be the allies of Hoffa's men in New York and other big eastern ports.

So just when Hoffa thought he was closing one big frontal battle, meaning the Senate racket-busting committee, he is watching the opening of a second front.

The trouble with Hoffa is that he always counts out his opponents before they hatch their plans.

War Of Words

By David Lawrence

Appeasement Is Danger Behind Talking Too Much

Domestic politics within every one of the major countries is today playing a significant part in world affairs. Thus, it is of tremendous help, politically speaking, to Prime Minister Macmillan for President Eisenhower to be visiting Great Britain at this time — just a few weeks before the British elections. It has been announced, for instance, that Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Macmillan will appear together and chat informally over a television network covering the British Isles.

David Lawrence

This will tend to reinforce the belief that the heads of the two governments are close and friendly and that it would be a mistake to disturb the relationship by a change in government at London.

None of this is, of course, deliberate. It's quite coincidental. But it is interesting to note how enthusiastic some of the British papers are about the "new Ike."

For months they have been giving the impression that he is a "sick man" and a "puppet." Suddenly they find him a new personality — healthy, vigorous and imbued with new qualities of leadership.

What's happened is that Ike hasn't really changed at all but he now is doing some of the things the British press have long been advocating — moving a bit closer to Khrushchev and engaging in more and more "conciliatory" gestures in relation to the Soviet Union.

ACTUALLY, when the chips are down, the British people as a whole don't feel a bit different than do Americans about appeasement policies, though some of the leaders on both sides of the Atlantic think there is a virtue in continuous talk.

The reason the conservatives in England persistently advocate it is that they know the Socialist Labor opposition would get considerable political mileage out of the issue if they didn't.

In France domestic politics influences Gen. De Gaule toward more and more nationalism. One tactic is his adoption of a cavalier attitude toward the United States.

It's important somehow to him to create an image of a strong and militant France. The general, though somewhat clumsily, is building up a public opinion for his nationalistic philosophy.

President Eisenhower is well aware of the nuances of the problem and his trip to Paris is designed to show that the United States isn't adverse to sending its President all the way to Paris just to chat with the French President. The visit is bound to assist De Gaulle with his own public opinion.

Also, President Eisenhower's meetings with the German Chancellor and the Italian Premier will unquestionably help each of them in their internal politics.

As for the United States, the implications of the Eisenhower-Nixon trips to the Soviet Union and the Khrushchev tour of America are by no means clear, but it is interesting to note the comments privately being made by some of the Democratic politicians.

While they hesitate to predict whether the episode will turn out to be an asset or a liability politically, they point to the anticlimax that came after the "summit" conference at Geneva in 1955.

THE PICTURES of Ike and the Soviet leaders fraternizing didn't sit well with the American public when it was discovered afterwards that the Moscow government meanwhile had been supplying arms to Nasser and stirring up trouble in the Middle East.

Some such move by the Communists might again destroy the supposedly good effects of an Eisenhower visit to the Soviet Union and tend to obscure the benefits now being obtained in public opinion polls by Vice President Nixon as a result of his tour of Russia.

Broadly speaking, the peace issue is important to all political parties in this country as well as in Britain. The people as a whole crave peace and hence they look with favor on anyone who apparently is trying hard to maintain it.

If a politician is too rigid about it, he finds himself attacked by his opponents. Doubtless the Soviets have strategists who advise them about such matters and that is why they are constantly expecting the democracies, especially the United States, to make concessions.

It is true that many editorials in the American press have stressed the talk idea as harmless but the Communists are themselves needless talkers and believe they can wear out the American and British diplomatists and eventually bring about changes in favor of the Communist policies.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST is the politics behind Khrushchev's own antics. He has wanted a summit conference to enhance his own standing inside the Soviet Union.

Fraternizing with President Eisenhower in Washington means an opportunity for big publicity inside the Soviet Union portraying Khrushchev as a world leader.

The Soviet people, too, want peace and the Premier is bound to get a further lease on governmental power and stave off revolution if he can reduce the cost of armament and improve the standard of living inside the Soviet Union.

So the political goals, while on their face the product of selfish ambition, do happen by coincidence to postpone big crises at least temporarily.

In the long run appeasement leads to war and that's the real danger in political motivations and compromises on basic principle.

Hoffa's Political Plans

By Raymond Moley

The entrance of James R. Hoffa's Teamsters into the political arena is greeted by AFL-CIO labor-in-politics leaders with the lack of enthusiasm displayed by a family of white rabbits when a polecat moves into their hutch for the winter.

The AFL-CIO COPE is a pretty slick outfit and it has been responsible for electing a goodly number of senators and house members as well as hundreds of state legislators.

While it spends a lot of money, its strength is mostly in the skillful use of manpower in getting voters registered and to the polls.

It is a political rule of long standing that while money is essential to a good working organization, too much of it or too vulgar a display thereof is a deadly peril.

HOFFA'S PLANS seem to be concern with gathering a huge war chest exacted in one way or another from members.

His approach is so grandiose and crude that it might set in motion a public swell against labor-in-politics generally and cause many captive legislators to stir uneasily when 1960 comes around. Moreover, Hoffa's big union is an outcast and an enemy of the AFL-CIO.

There seems to be some confusion in Hoffa's mind about how much he is planning to raise.

However, on Aug. 13 he told an audience of Teamsters that he plans to ask his executive board to approve an assessment of $1.25 a year as a minimum and five million dollars as a maximum.

The former plan would bring in something more than two million.

If the plans works, let us say that the fund will be three million.

No one can estimate what the AFL-CIO rasises and spends because its money is collected in two ways. There are direct voluntary gifts from members which never meet the costs, and there are "educational" contributions taken directly from the general funds of unions.

The difference is nominal rather than real, because the "educational" business differs in no significant respect from the activities of a political party.

When an indictment against the UAW was before the Supreme Court 2½ years ago, Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., attorney for the UAW, said that there could be no line drawn between collective bargaining and politics. Hence, it is the practice to use dues exacted for collective bargaining to help elect friendly public officials.

But the sum proposed by Hoffa is formidable in terms of what a national party raises and spends. In a congressional election neither national party spends as much as the minimum of Hoffa's estimates.

No one can tell the cost to the AFL-CIO in a congressional election. Year-around "education" and also tremendous manpower are covered in the ordinary expenses of many unions.

If Hoffa believes that he can, by raising a big fund, effectually perform in the 1960 election, he is not as smart as he has been in escaping the clutches of the law in other respects.

Effective political action requires long preparation, careful organization, training of workers and intimate relations with the political people in the many communities concerned.

THE LABOR REFORM legislation before Congress — any of the bills proposed — fails to reach labor-in-politics. Such regulation will require vastly more study, discussion and legislative drafting than has been expended on the present bills.

It is a complex problem to differentiate between "education" and politics. Also, any such legislation would have to be devised to escape the First Amendment ax of this Supreme Court.

comfortable 77 degrees, which prevailed from 1 to 5 a. m. The predicted low indicates another restless night for many with 68 to 72 expected.

Millions of Americans, in a wide area from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast, sweltered in the oppressive heat and high humidity. The weathermen said relief for many was on the way.

The forecasters said a cool front was moving slowly across the Great Lakes region toward New England through Eastern New York and Connecticut. Baltimore, Washington and New York—broiling in the heat of the last several days—were due to be beneficiaries of the cooling Canadian breezes and thundershowers.

The forecasters said the cooling process would stretch from Chicago and the Great Lakes to the eastern seaboard down through Virginia.

Overnight rains brought some relief today in the Central Plains and the Midwest.

Overnight rains brought some cooling in the Great Lakes and Upper Mississippi Valley.

Friday's hot spell sent the thermometer over 90 degrees into Nebraska where Lincoln hit 100.

Baltimore had a 98 for an all-time record for August. It was the 10th straight day of 90 plus weather for the Maryland City. Nineties prevailed at other points. Chicago labored under a 96.

Negotiators discussed the contract extension Friday without reaching agreement. The union represents some 8,000 workers at Timken plants here, in Columbus and in Wooster.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

Positive Thinker Of The Desert

Yesterday I met one of the world's great positive thinkers. It was not in America, traditional home of positive thinkers, where I met this man, but rather in the wilderness of Judea, where in the long ago John the Baptist preached. His name is Musa Alami and he has made the desert to blossom as the rose—a desert which in all the history of the world had never blossomed heretofore. He succeeded because he believed that he could, and he kept at it until he did, which, of course, is the way you succeed at anything.

Dr. Peale

Musa, an Arab boy, was educated at Cambridge, came back to Palestine where he became a well-to-do man — well-to-do, that is, by Middle Eastern standards. Then in the political turmoil he lost everything, including his home.

—:—

HE WENT beyond Jordan to the edge of Jericho. Stretching away on either side was the great, bleak, arid desert of the Jordan valley. In the distance to the left, shimmering in the hot haze, loomed the mountains of Judea, and to the right, the Mountains of Moab.

With the exception of a few cases, nothing ever had been cultivated in this hot and weary land and all the wiseacres said that nothing could be raised, for how could you bring water to it? To dam the Jordan river for irrigation was too expensive and besides, there was no friendly power to finance such a project.

"What about underground water?" asked Musa Alami. Long and loud they laughed. Who ever heard of such a thing? There was no water under that hot, dry desert. That sandy waste of parched earth and sand had lain there since the beginning of time. And having been covered ages ago by Dead Sea water, the sand was full of salt, which further added to its aridity.

MUSA, meditating, saw the shimmering surface of the Dead Sea nearby and agreed that the saltiness of the earth was indeed a problem. But what were problems for but to be solved? God, he reasoned, had made it a good earth and all that was necessary was to bring life-giving water to it.

He had heard of the amazing rehabilitation of the California desert through subsurface water. He decided that he could find water here also. So sure was he that he mapped out roads for a ranch. All the old-time Bedouin sheiks said it couldn't be done, governmental officials agreed, and, solemnly, so did the famous scientists from abroad. There was absolutely no water there. That was that.

But Musa was unimpressed. He thought there was. A few poverty-stricken refugees from the nearby Jericho Refugee Camp helped him as he started to dig. With well-drilling equipment? Not on your life. With pick and shovel. Everybody laughed as the dauntless man and his ragged friends dug away day after day, week after week, month after month. Slowly down they went deep into the sand into which no man since creation had plumbed for water, for, of course, no water was there.

For six months they dug. Then one day the sand became wet, and finally water, life-giving water, gushed forth. The Arabs who had gathered round did not laugh or cheer; they wept. Water had been found in the ancient desert! And they who had known the burning sands for centuries could not speak, so great was their wonder and gratitude. They wept.

A VERY old man, sheik of a nearby village, heard the amazing news. He came to see for himself. "Musa," he asked, "have you really found water? Let me see it and feel it and taste it."

The old man put his hand in the stream, splashed it over his face, put it on his tongue. "It is sweet and cool," he said. "It is good water." Then placing his aged hands on the shoulder of Musa Alami he said, "Thank God. Now, Musa, you can die." It was the simple tribute of a desert man to a positive thinker who did what everyone said could not be done.

Now, several years later, Musa Alamo has 15 wells supplying a ranch nearly three miles long and two miles wide. He raised vegetables, bananas, figs, citrus fruit and boys.

In his school he is growing citizens of the future, farmers and technicians, experts in the trades. Produce is flown to Kuwait, Bahrein, the Persian Gulf, Beirut, as well as to nearby Jerusalem. Imitating Musa, others also have dug until 40,000 acres are under cultivation and the green is spreading over the sands.

I asked this amazing man what kept him going, kept him believing when everyone said it couldn't be done. "There was no alternative. It had to be done," he said and added, "God helped me."

As twilight turned the Mountains of Moab and the Judean Hills to red and gold, I sat watching a huge stream of water gush from the heart of the desert. And as it splashed into a deep, wide pool, it seemed to say, "It can be done, it can be done." So, don't let your difficulties get you down and do not believe those croakers who say you cannot do it. Remember Musa Alami, positive thinker of the wilderness of Judea.

Hunt Pressed For Boy In Lake Erie Section

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An extensive search was launched after 7-year-old Billy Jones disappeared Friday at Headlands State Park on Lake Erie.

No trace of the boy was found by nightfall.

Mrs. Betty Jones said she had seen Billy playing close to the lake, and when she failed to see him again she assumed he had returned to their home at 323 Orchard Rd., Mentor Headlands.

When she did not find him at home, she called police.

Neighbors and Civil Defense workers formed a human chain that stretched 150 feet into the lake and went the full length of the beach.

Swampland and wooded areas nearby also were searched.

Alliance Youth Injured In City Motorist's Auto

Arnold Dixon, 19, of Alliance, a passenger in a car driven by Corliss S. Myers, 53, of Park Blvd., suffered a cut forehead Thursday when the auto was involved in a collision with a truck on Alternate Route 14 in Mahoning County just south of the Portage County line.

According to the State Highway Patrol at Canfield, a truck driven by Robert Jones, 33, of Alliance crashed a stop sign and struck the Myers auto. Jones was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

RICHWOOD, W. Va. (AP) — Frederick William Hobart II, 15, of Richwood, son of Harry W. Hobart of Lorain, Ohio, drowned in Cherry River here Friday. Hobart's companions thought he was joking when they saw him struggling in the water. The youth lived here with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirby.

Girl Near Death After Being Hit By Flying Rivet

CINCINNATI (AP) — A rivet fired from a construction workers' gun had a 16-year-old schoolgirl near death at General Hospital today.

After surgery Friday night, hospital aides said Nella Ruth Sergent was in critical condition. The rivet went about two inches into her brain.

Police arrested Robert W. Trimble, 21, and a juvenile companion after the girl was wounded Friday. They said Trimble admitted firing the device. No charge was filed immediately.

Investigators said the girl was shot this way:

Trimble, in his sister's upper apartment, was demonstrating the gun which fires a rivet that attaches steel to concrete. The rivet went through the floor and struck the Sergent girl in the head.

Trimble and the juvenile rushed downstairs to aid the girl, but failed to report firing the rivet gun. Officers later discovered Trimble and his companion in a nearby cafe.

Wedding

acting as her maid of honor, and her bridesmaids, five girlhood friends, stood on the other side.

Nearly 170 invited guests and spectators sat on the wooden benches on both sides of the aisle. Among them was Trygve Lie, former secretary general of the United Nations. In the gallery were five newspaper correspondents.

Preceding the ceremony, the officiating vicar directed the bell ringer to play the hymn "Love From God."

He told the young couple "Your example shows that real love, which is from God, breaks down all the social and conventional barriers amongst us. To build a good home is perhaps the greatest of all arts."

Turning to the 23-year-old son of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, he said "You, Steven Rockefeller, take with you into your new home a good inheritance."

And to the 21-year-old blonde bride, daughter of a retired grocer, he said, "We will thank you for being a good ambassador of Norway, and we hope you will be a good member of the Rockefeller family and a useful citizen of your new, great country."

Just before the ceremony, the groom's father told newsmen Steven and Anne Marie will fly to New York Sunday to spend their honeymoon somewhere in the United States.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he and his wife will fly to Copenhagen, and the newlyweds will follow on a separate plane. They will meet in Copenhagen, he said but declined to elaborate on honeymoon plans.

Steven met Anne Marie while she worked as a maid in the Rockefeller's Fifth Avenue home in New York.

The Cinderella romance caught the imagination of the world and brought foreign newsmen and television crews into this usually quiet village along with crowds of tourists and others. Extra police had to be hired.

The wedding reception and dinner will be held at the Kristiansand Club called the "Society Club" and sometimes the "White House."

The Sogne Lutheran Evangelical Church was decorated with pink carnations and roses covering the center aisle leading to the altar. African lilies, gladiolas and chrysanthemums bloomed everywhere in the church.

Gov. Rockefeller flew to Norway Thursday night from New York to join his wife, already here well in advance to help in preparing for the wedding, and other members of the family.

Boy Escapes Police, Chum Held In Robbery

LISBON — A 15-year old Washingtonville youth and a 11-year old Leetonia boy were captured Friday in Beaver Falls while robbing the Jerry's Lunch, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, but the older escaped while he was being questioned.

The youths were reported missing early this week by Police Chief Henry Gibson of Leetonia.

The boys admitted breaking in to the Brilleo Grocery store and the Methodist Church in New Waterford, along with four other churches in Beaver County and four or five more business places, including the lunchroom where they were caught.

The younger was returned to Columbiana County for a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after the 15-year old is recaptured, deputies said.

French Kill 63 Rebels In 48-Hour Battle

ALGIERS (AP)—French troops said they killed 63 Algerian rebels and wounded 7 in a 48-hour battle.

French headquarters said today their casualties were 12 dead and 15 wounded.

The casualties for both sides were among the highest announced for a single engagement in recent months. Fighting ended Friday.

New York City Again Hit By Power Failure

NEW YORK (AP)—About 21,000 New Yorkers sweltered through two more power blackouts Friday and early today. But neither was as serious as Manhattan's mass power failure last Monday, which lasted 12 hours and affected half a million people.

Friday night and today's most serious blackout inconvenienced an estimated 20,000 people living on a three-mile stretch of Rockaway Peninsula, in Queens.

The lights winked out on the strip of land, which juts into the Atlantic Ocean, at 10:43 p.m. and came back on at 1:01 a.m. The population is largely made up of summer residents and vacationers.

The second Manhattan blackout, which lasted only an hour Friday came at twilight. A fashionable one-block apartment house area near Central Park West was involved. About 1,000 persons live there.

The section was one of the 500 blocks stricken on Monday.

The Manhattan failure was blamed on an underground power cable which grounded out. The Queens failure resulted from water seeping into a major fuse, causing a short circuit.

Typhoon Iris Roars Toward Red China

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Strong winds and heavy rain lashed southern Formosa today as typhoon Iris passed south of this island and roared toward the Red China mainland.

The tropical storm, with 75-mile-an-hour winds, thundered into the East China Sea and headed for the Communist seaport of Swatow, between Quemoy and Hong Kong.

Typhoon Iris plowed into the Batanes Islands off the northern tip of Luzon Friday, churning up rough seas that caused two shipwrecks with heavy loss of lives.

comfortable 77 degrees, which prevailed from 1 to 5 a. m. The predicted low indicates another restless night for many with 68 to 72 expected.

Millions of Americans, in a wide area from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast, sweltered in the oppressive heat and high humidity. The weathermen said relief for many was on the way.

The forecasters said a cool front was moving slowly across the Great Lakes region toward New England through Eastern New York and Connecticut. Baltimore, Washington and New York—broiling in the heat of the last several days—were due to be beneficiaries of the cooling Canadian breezes and thundershowers.

The forecasters said the cooling process would stretch from Chicago and the Great Lakes to the eastern seaboard down through Virginia.

Overnight rains brought some relief today in the Central Plains and the Midwest.

Overnight rains brought some cooling in the Great Lakes and Upper Mississippi Valley.

Friday's hot spell sent the thermometer over 90 degrees into Nebraska where Lincoln hit 100.

Baltimore had a 98 for an all-time record for August. It was the 10th straight day of 90 plus weather for the Maryland City. Nineties prevailed at other points. Chicago labored under a 96.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

Positive Thinker Of The Desert

Yesterday I met one of the world's great positive thinkers. It was not in America, traditional home of positive thinkers, where I met this man, but rather in the wilderness of Judea, where in the long ago John the Baptist preached. His name is Musa Alami and he has made the desert to blossom as the rose—a desert which in all the history of the world had never blossomed heretofore. He succeeded because he believed that he could, and he kept at it until he did, which, of course, is the way you succeed at anything.

Dr. Peale

Musa, an Arab boy, was educated at Cambridge, came back to Palestine where he became a well-to-do man — well-to-do, that is, by Middle Eastern standards. Then in the political turmoil he lost everything, including his home.

—:—

HE WENT beyond Jordan to the edge of Jericho. Stretching away on either side was the great, bleak, arid desert of the Jordan valley. In the distance to the left, shimmering in the hot haze, loomed the mountains of Judea, and to the right, the Mountains of Moab.

With the exception of a few cases, nothing ever had been cultivated in this hot and weary land and all the wiseacres said that nothing could be raised, for how could you bring water to it? To dam the Jordan river for irrigation was too expensive and besides, there was no friendly power to finance such a project.

"What about underground water?" asked Musa Alami. Long and loud they laughed. Who ever heard of such a thing? There was no water under that hot, dry desert. That sandy waste of parched earth and sand had lain there since the beginning of time. And having been covered ages ago by Dead Sea water, the sand was full of salt, which further added to its aridity.

MUSA, meditating, saw the shimmering surface of the Dead Sea nearby and agreed that the saltiness of the earth was indeed a problem. But what were problems for but to be solved? God, he reasoned, had made it a good earth and all that was necessary was to bring life-giving water to it.

He had heard of the amazing rehabilitation of the California desert through subsurface water. He decided that he could find water here also. So sure was he that he mapped out roads for a ranch. All the old-time Bedouin sheiks said it couldn't be done, governmental officials agreed, and, solemnly, so did the famous scientists from abroad. There was absolutely no water there. That was that.

But Musa was unimpressed. He thought there was. A few poverty-stricken refugees from the nearby Jericho Refugee Camp helped him as he started to dig. With well-drilling equipment? Not on your life. With pick and shovel. Everybody laughed as the dauntless man and his ragged friends dug away day after day, week after week, month after month. Slowly down they went deep into the sand into which no man since creation had plumbed for water, for, of course, no water was there.

For six months they dug. Then one day the sand became wet, and finally water, life-giving water, gushed forth. The Arabs who had gathered round did not laugh or cheer; they wept. Water had been found in the ancient desert! And they who had known the burning sands for centuries could not speak, so great was their wonder and gratitude. They wept.

A VERY old man, sheik of a nearby village, heard the amazing news. He came to see for himself. "Musa," he asked, "have you really found water? Let me see it and feel it and taste it."

The old man put his hand in the stream, splashed it over his face, put it on his tongue. "It is sweet and cool," he said. "It is good water." Then placing his aged hands on the shoulder of Musa Alami he said, "Thank God. Now, Musa, you can die." It was the simple tribute of a desert man to a positive thinker who did what everyone said could not be done.

Now, several years later, Musa Alamo has 15 wells supplying a ranch nearly three miles long and two miles wide. He raised vegetables, bananas, figs, citrus fruit and boys.

In his school he is growing citizens of the future, farmers and technicians, experts in the trades. Produce is flown to Kuwait, Bahrein, the Persian Gulf, Beirut, as well as to nearby Jerusalem. Imitating Musa, others also have dug until 40,000 acres are under cultivation and the green is spreading over the sands.

I asked this amazing man what kept him going, kept him believing when everyone said it couldn't be done. "There was no alternative. It had to be done," he said and added, "God helped me."

As twilight turned the Mountains of Moab and the Judean Hills to red and gold, I sat watching a huge stream of water gush from the heart of the desert. And as it splashed into a deep, wide pool, it seemed to say, "It can be done, it can be done." So, don't let your difficulties get you down and do not believe those croakers who say you cannot do it. Remember Musa Alami, positive thinker of the wilderness of Judea.

Hunt Pressed For Boy In Lake Erie Section

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An extensive search was launched after 7-year-old Billy Jones disappeared Friday at Headlands State Park on Lake Erie.

No trace of the boy was found by nightfall.

Mrs. Betty Jones said she had seen Billy playing close to the lake, and when she failed to see him again she assumed he had returned to their home at 323 Orchard Rd., Mentor Headlands.

When she did not find him at home, she called police.

Neighbors and Civil Defense workers formed a human chain that stretched 150 feet into the lake and went the full length of the beach.

Swampland and wooded areas nearby also were searched.

Alliance Youth Injured In City Motorist's Auto

Arnold Dixon, 19, of Alliance, a passenger in a car driven by Corliss S. Myers, 53, of Park Blvd., suffered a cut forehead Thursday when the auto was involved in a collision with a truck on Alternate Route 14 in Mahoning County just south of the Portage County line.

According to the State Highway Patrol at Canfield, a truck driven by Robert Jones, 33, of Alliance crashed a stop sign and struck the Myers auto. Jones was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

RICHWOOD, W. Va. (AP) — Frederick William Hobart II, 15, of Richwood, son of Harry W. Hobart of Lorain, Ohio, drowned in Cherry River here Friday. Hobart's companions thought he was joking when they saw him struggling in the water. The youth lived here with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirby.

Girl Near Death After Being Hit By Flying Rivet

CINCINNATI (AP) — A rivet fired from a construction workers' gun had a 16-year-old schoolgirl near death at General Hospital today.

After surgery Friday night, hospital aides said Nella Ruth Sergent was in critical condition. The rivet went about two inches into her brain.

Police arrested Robert W. Trimble, 21, and a juvenile companion after the girl was wounded Friday. They said Trimble admitted firing the device. No charge was filed immediately.

Investigators said the girl was shot this way:

Trimble, in his sister's upper apartment, was demonstrating the gun which fires a rivet that attaches steel to concrete. The rivet went through the floor and struck the Sergent girl in the head.

Trimble and the juvenile rushed downstairs to aid the girl, but failed to report firing the rivet gun. Officers later discovered Trimble and his companion in a nearby cafe.

Nearly 170 invited guests and spectators sat on the wooden benches on both sides of the aisle. Among them was Trygve Lie, former secretary general of the United Nations. In the gallery were five newspaper correspondents.

Preceding the ceremony, the officiating vicar directed the bell ringer to play the hymn "Love From God."

He told the young couple "Your example shows that real love, which is from God, breaks down all the social and conventional barriers amongst us. To build a good home is perhaps the greatest of all arts."

Turning to the 23-year-old son of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, he said "You, Steven Rockefeller, take with you into your new home a good inheritance."

And to the 21-year-old blonde bride, daughter of a retired grocer, he said, "We will thank you for being a good ambassador of Norway, and we hope you will be a good member of the Rockefeller family and a useful citizen of your new, great country."

Just before the ceremony, the groom's father told newsmen Steven and Anne Marie will fly to New York Sunday to spend their honeymoon somewhere in the United States.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he and his wife will fly to Copenhagen, and the newlyweds will follow on a separate plane. They will meet in Copenhagen, he said but declined to elaborate on honeymoon plans.

Steven met Anne Marie while she worked as a maid in the Rockefeller's Fifth Avenue home in New York.

The Cinderella romance caught the imagination of the world and brought foreign newsmen and television crews into this usually quiet village along with crowds of tourists and others. Extra police had to be hired.

The wedding reception and dinner will be held at the Kristiansand Club called the "Society Club" and sometimes the "White House."

The Sogne Lutheran Evangelical Church was decorated with pink carnations and roses covering the center aisle leading to the altar. African lilies, gladiolas and chrysanthemums bloomed everywhere in the church.

Gov. Rockefeller flew to Norway Thursday night from New York to join his wife, already here well in advance to help in preparing for the wedding, and other members of the family.

Boy Escapes Police, Chum Held In Robbery

LISBON — A 15-year old Washingtonville youth and a 11-year old Leetonia boy were captured Friday in Beaver Falls while robbing the Jerry's Lunch, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, but the older escaped while he was being questioned.

The youths were reported missing early this week by Police Chief Henry Gibson of Leetonia.

The boys admitted breaking in to the Brilleo Grocery store and the Methodist Church in New Waterford, along with four other churches in Beaver County and four or five more business places, including the lunchroom where they were caught.

The younger was returned to Columbiana County for a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after the 15-year old is recaptured, deputies said.

ALGIERS (AP)—French troops said they killed 63 Algerian rebels and wounded 7 in a 48-hour battle.

The casualties for both sides were among the highest announced for a single engagement in recent months. Fighting ended Friday.

New York City Again Hit By Power Failure

NEW YORK (AP)—About 21,000 New Yorkers sweltered through two more power blackouts Friday and early today. But neither was as serious as Manhattan's mass power failure last Monday, which lasted 12 hours and affected half a million people.

Friday night and today's most serious blackout inconvenienced an estimated 20,000 people living on a three-mile stretch of Rockaway Peninsula, in Queens.

The lights winked out on the strip of land, which juts into the Atlantic Ocean, at 10:43 p.m. and came back on at 1:01 a.m. The population is largely made up of summer residents and vacationers.

The second Manhattan blackout, which lasted only an hour Friday came at twilight. A fashionable one-block apartment house area near Central Park West was involved. About 1,000 persons live there.

The section was one of the 500 blocks stricken on Monday.

The Manhattan failure was blamed on an underground power cable which grounded out. The Queens failure resulted from water seeping into a major fuse, causing a short circuit.

Typhoon Iris Roars Toward Red China

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Strong winds and heavy rain lashed southern Formosa today as typhoon Iris passed south of this island and roared toward the Red China mainland.

The tropical storm, with 75-mile-an-hour winds, thundered into the East China Sea and headed for the Communist seaport of Swatow, between Quemoy and Hong Kong.

Typhoon Iris plowed into the Batanes Islands off the northern tip of Luzon Friday, churning up rough seas that caused two shipwrecks with heavy loss of lives.

A Thought From the War Cry

Saving Time ... But For What?

"Walk in wisdom . . . redeeming the time." Colossians 4:5

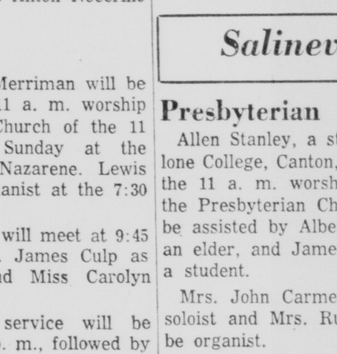

The savings of hours, minutes and seconds has become the "grande passion" of the Twentieth Century. This is an age of throughways, freeways, parkways, overpasses, underpasses, cloverleafs and multi-level interchanges. This is an age of pushbuttons, of automation, all designed to save time for business, factory or home. Nor would we curb or kill such effort, for such saving spells leisure, and life robbed of leisure, becomes drudgery.

But how do we spend the hours thus saved? What do these hours profit if they are whiled away in frivolities, vanities and wickedness? This is not saving time, it is "killing" time, and none can afford a sacrifice so costly. Life is moving as fast as the age and will soon close out its little day for all of us.

The wise man then will realize that he is building not alone for this world but for the world to come. He will "lay up treasures in heaven" and find true happiness as he accepts the challenge of each passing moment, to add to the imperishable wealth of something done for his fellowman and for his God.

Saving Time... But For What?

"Walk in wisdom . . . redeeming the time." Colossians 4:5

The savings of hours, minutes and seconds has become the "grande passion" of the Twentieth Century. This is an age of throughways, freeways, parkways, overpasses, underpasses, cloverleafs and multi-level interchanges. This is an age of pushbuttons, of automation, all designed to save time for business, factory or home. Nor would we curb or kill such effort, for such saving spells leisure, and life robbed of leisure, becomes drudgery.

But how do we spend the hours thus saved? What do these hours profit if they are whiled away in frivolities, vanities and wickedness? This is not saving time, it is "killing" time, and none can afford a sacrifice so costly. Life is moving as fast as the age and will soon close out its little day for all of us.

The wise man then will realize that he is building not alone for this world but for the world to come. He will "lay up treasures in heaven" and find true happiness as he accepts the challenge of each passing moment, to add to the imperishable wealth of something done for his fellowman and for his God.

German Royalty Will Salute Amana Church Group In Iowa

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

German royalty, in the persons of the Prince and Princess of Ysenburg-Budingen, makes an appearance in Iowa next week to join in a salute to some old friends of the family—the Amana Church Society.

Amana, which began as a tight little religious commune and survived by separating church from state, observes its 100th anniversary Monday in its seven small villages about 20 miles southwest of Cedar Rapids.

The visiting prince is a descendant of an earlier German nobleman, a prince of Hesse, who gave refuge to the ancestors of the Amanists when they were persecuted as enemies of the established church.

The Amana Church Society, although it wasn't called that then, actually dates back more than 100 years. It began as a pietistic, separatist movement in Germany in the early 18th century.

Persecutions drove members to the United States where they settled first near Buffalo as the Eben Ezer Society and then in Iowa as Amana, which means "believe faithfully."

The 100th anniversary observes the day when the state of Iowa granted a charter to Amanists who founded the towns of Amana; East, Middle, High, South and West Amana — and purchased the nearby village of Homestead.

Early Amana, like many other religious communities that later withered and died, was ruled by a board of elders who were all-powerful in both spiritual and temporal affairs.

All property was held in common. Clothing worn by men and women was plain and sober in color. The people ate communally in messhall-style buildings, the food prepared by the women.

Religious services, the most important events of the week, were held in meeting houses with whitewashed walls, bare floors and unpainted benches. Members were required to attend 11 services a week.

Gradually, as changes in the outside world made themselves felt on Amana, the sober existence began to pall on its members. The communities began to lose people, particularly young people.

The elders of the society decided upon a drastic plan of reorganization. Church and state were separated into the Amana Church Society and the new Amana Society, a decidedly secular stock corporation.

Members used their stock to purchase their homes from the corporation. The communal dining halls were closed. Some of them reopened as inns and restaurants. All this happened as late as the 1930s.

On the spiritual side, most Amanists have retained the essentials of the religion and German culture brought to Iowa by their forebears. And that's why German nobility is taking part in next week's ceremony.

Last Surviving Civil War Vet Still Critical

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Civil War's last surviving veteran remained in critical condition today.

Doctors Friday night reported no change in the condition of Walter W. Williams, 116. His daughter Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles, said the old soldier has been taking liquid nourishment but "he's been asleep" since early Thursday.

A "section" of land has 640 acres.

It was his first trip to Washington. He was only six. Everything had to be analyzed by the standards of a first-grader!

Tell him it's the Washington Monument . . . he still thinks of it as "The Pencil." Time for his parents to learn a lesson:

Suppose he had never seen a pencil. What would it have meant to him then? Probably nothing!

A child needs standards by which to measure all he encounters. The standards may be simple—but he uses them. With them he associates the things he wants to remember.

The Church provides your child with simple religious standards. He still needs your help to grasp the truth he must master. But the standards you and he learn at Church are the foundation of his character . . . the inspiration of your own. In his terms: the pencil with which tomorrow is written.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Last Surviving Civil War Vet Still Critical

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Civil War's last surviving veteran remained in critical condition today.

Doctors Friday night reported no change in the condition of Walter W. Williams, 116. His daughter Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles, said the old soldier has been taking liquid nourishment but "he's been asleep" since early Thursday.

A "section" of land has 640 acres.

It was his first trip to Washington. He was only six. Everything had to be analyzed by the standards of a first-grader!

Tell him it's the Washington Monument . . . he still thinks of it as "The Pencil." Time for his parents to learn a lesson:

Suppose he had never seen a pencil. What would it have meant to him then? Probably nothing!

A child needs standards by which to measure all he encounters. The standards may be simple—but he uses them. With them he associates the things he wants to remember.

The Church provides your child with simple religious standards. He still needs your help to grasp the truth he must master. But the standards you and he learn at Church are the foundation of his character . . . the inspiration of your own. In his terms: the pencil with which tomorrow is written.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

City Business Shows Annual Vacation Drop

The usual midsummer slump, aggravated in the retail field by the loss of earnings resulting from the steel strike, cut most East Liverpool business and industrial indices in July — compared with their June totals.

But cumulative figures for the first seven months of 1959 show most lines are well ahead of the levels they held at the same time in 1958, when the nation was gripped by a general cutback in business.

The monthly summary of business and industrial conditions, issued today by the Chamber of Commerce, showed this picture: Ten of the 14 indices fell in July, compared with their June levels, but 11 are up for the first 7 months of 1959, compared with the same period in 1958.

Payrolls at 11 district industrial plants hit $1,208,125 in July, off 15.7 per cent from the $1,433,227 shown in June. They stand at $7,730,281 for the first 7 months of the year, an increase of 2.1 per cent from the $7,571,450 recorded at the same time in 1958.

Employment at the same plants totaled 3,990 in July, down 6.2 per cent from June's 4,252. The employment has averaged 4,149 monthly so far in 1958, down 5 per cent from the 4,367 average maintained at the same time in 1958.

Sales tax receipts fell from $88,370 in June to $43,441 in July, but most of the 50.8 per cent change was attributed to the fact that auto sales tax no longer is listed as part of the total. The change in the method of reporting became effective last month. The collections stand at $392,429 for the first seven months of 1959, a gain of 12.8 per cent from the $347,913 shown at the same time in 1958.

Inbound railroad carloadings gained slightly last month, but outboard loadings were off from June.

The inbound loadings totaled 366, up 1.9 per cent from the 359 shown in June. They total 2,277 for the first 7 months of the year, a gain of 42.1 per cent from the 1,602 shown at the same time in 1958.

The outbound loadings totaled 237 in July, a decline of 18.3 per cent from the 290 shown in June. They stand at 2,042 for the first seven months of 1959, an increase of 33.7 per cent from the 1,527 registered at the same time last year.

River traffic also slumped last month, apparently as a result of a cut-off of ore and coal shipments to district mills.

Dam 8 at Newell locked through 511 towboats last month, a drop of 16.8 per cent from the 614 shown in July. It has locked through 2,803 tows for the first 7 months of the year, a gain of 19.8 per cent from the 2,340 shown at the same time in 1958.

July's river traffic represented 1,170,400 tons of freight, off 32.8 per cent from June's 1,740,900. The tonnage totals 10,525,405 for the first 7 months of the year, an increase of 23 per cent from the 8,556,050 listed at the same time in 1958.

Despite the strike, new car sales in Columbiana County did not slump badly. A total of 350 new autos was registered in July, down just 4.9 per cent from June's 368.

The auto sales total 2,092 for the first 7 months of 1959, a gain of 34.7 per cent from the 1,553 shown at the same time in 1958.

The city's parking meter receipts hit $5,666 last month, up 32.9 per cent from the $4,264 shown in June. They stand at $33,429 for the first 7 months of the year, down 8.8 per cent from the $36,647 shown at the same time in 1958.

City relief cases totaled 69 last month, off 10.3 per cent from the 77 shown in June. They have averaged 84 monthly so far in 1959, down 22.2 per cent from the 108 average shown in the first seven months of 1958.

Postal receipts totaled $19,496 in July, up 5.6 per cent from the $18,467 shown in June. They total $140,405 for the first 7 months in 1959, a gain of 24.4 per cent from the $112,880 shown at the same time in 1958.

Bank debits hit $24,817,388 in July, up 6 per cent from June's $23,406,573. They have averaged $22,025,066 monthly so far in 1959, up 6 per cent from the $20,779,963 average shown at the same time in 1958.

Bank clearings totaled $3,552,685 in July, an increase of 1.4 per cent from June's $3,601,932. They total $23,308,521 for the first seven months of 1959, up 4.4 per cent from the $22,315,193 shown at the same time in 1958.

Tax Law Change Helps Cut County Tax Totals

Sales tax collections in Columbiana County hit $26,438 in the week ending Aug. 8, off $2,689 from the $29,127 shown in the corresponding week of 1958, State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson reported today at Columbus.

But a change in the state sales tax law that went into effect July 1 helped reduce the totals for the current fiscal year. Sales tax on autos no longer is reported as part of the overall total. It is listed separately.

The collections total $120,500 since the start of the fiscal year July 1, down $35,868 from the $156,368 reported at the same time last year.

Little Rock Segregationists Received 'Well' In Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Little Rock segregationists, stymied in their own hometown, found a receptive audience at a rally protesting integration of the Dollarway school near here.

A crowd of about 1,000 cheered and laughed Friday night as Amis Guthridge, attorney for the Capital Citizens Council, lashed and ridiculed persons he accused of promoting integration at Little Rock.

Guthridge assured his listeners that the Little Rock struggle was not over, although four Negroes have attended two once - white schools since Aug. 12 without significant incident.

He urged the crowd to stay united in the struggle to prevent entry of three Negroes to Dollarway when the school opens Sept. 8.

"If Negroes are permitted to attend Dollarway, the bars are down," Guthridge said. "The doors of every school in Arkansas' 400 districts will be open to them."

The Dollarway School Board has appealed a federal court order directing school officials to admit the three Negroes.

The audience began heckling newsmen after Guthridge said "The press is down here as our enemies."

Guthridge singled out Gertrude Samuels, writer for the New York Times Sunday Magazine, and most of the crowd's taunts were directed at her. Miss Samuels photographed persons yelling at her.

British Maestro, 80, Weds Secretary, 27

LONDON (AP) — Sir Thomas Beecham, the petulant patriarch of the podium, wound up a satisfactory recording of Handel's "The Great Elopment." Then the 80-year-old British maestro and his 27-year-old secretary, Shirley Hudson, left the study together—and eloped.

Sir Thomas, conductor of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, is as irascible as ever whether performing or expounding his views on things and people. Friends described his bride as a tranquilizing influence who may finally tame him. She is his third wife.

Their elopement was kept secret until today when Sir Thomas himself— presumably honeymooning in Switzerland—advertised it in a London newspaper.

Living Costs Hit New High During July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living rose three-tenths of 1 per cent in July to another record high, the government reported Friday.

The Labor Department said higher prices for all major classes of goods and services contributed to the advance, with food prices leading the way.

The consumer price index for July was 124.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average, eight - tenths of 1 per cent higher than in July 1958.

The increase will mean wage boosts to about one million workers primarily in the automobile, farm equipment and aircraft industries.

Hersey C. Riley, chief of the department's division of prices and cost of living, said most of the effected workers will receive a quarterly raise of 2 cents an hour.

He said this is the first increase for automobile workers since last July.

Riley said the increase from June to July was "pretty much a result of seasonal factors. Only twice since 1941 have food prices declined in July and the average increased for that month is five-tenths of 1 per cent."

Food prices increased four-tenths of 1 per cent over the month this year. The cost of eggs went up 18 per cent, much more than usual for the season.

An advance in beef and poultry prices offset some declines in fresh fruits and vegetables.

"We are quite certain from what we see now that food prices will drop in August, but we can't tell just how that will affect the entire cost of living index," Riley said.

He said about one - quarter of the total increase in the cost of living this month could be attributed to local tax increases such as those on cigarettes and restaurant meals, and state sales taxes in Illinois and Arizona.

Riley also announced that the spendable earnings of factory workers and the buying power of those earnings dropped in July.

He said the decreases resulted from the usual summer drop in the work week due to vacations and other such factors, and to a lesser extent from the work soppage in the steel industry in mid-July.

With the exception of fruits and vegetables, down 2.8 per cent, and new automobiles, off seven-tenths of 1 per cent, prices all along the line rose during July. The increases included: Restaurant meals one half of 1 per cent, housing one-tenth of 1 per cent, reading and recreation eight-tenths of 1 per cent, transportation three-tenths of 1 per cent, clothing two - tenths of 1 per cent, medical care three-tenths of 1 per cent, and personal care two - tenths of 1 per cent.

As Presidential Candidate

Rockefeller Doesn't Think He'll Be 'Drafted' By GOP

KRISTIANSAND, Norway (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he does not believe there will be any move to draft him as the Repbublican candidate for the presidency.

The New York governor made the statement at a news conference. He is here for the marriage of his son Steven to Anne Marie Rasmussen.

He repeated that he is not a candidate and that he would not be interested in being the nominee for vice president. Asked to comment on the possibility of a move to draft him, he said:

"I don't think there is any such thing."

He said he did not anticipate any action to draft him. Reporters asked if he would accept the GOP nomination on such terms. His answer was lost in a chorus of succeeding questions. When the question was repeated, he replied, "I said no."

Rockefeller has said he might change his position with respect to becoming a candidate for the nomination under certain circumstances. Reporters asked again whether his decision would be based on the findings of public opinion polls. He said it would not.

He replied "I'd prefer not to discuss the situation" when questioned about the circumstances that could make him a presidential candidate.

Twice, Rockefeller burst into laughter when a reporter addressed him as "Mr. Roosevelt."

"That man must be a Democrat," he said.

Senate Approves $1.4 Billion For Military Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate gave speedy, unanimous approval Friday to a $1,428,178,700 bill providing funds to build armories, aircraft shops and hundreds of military construction projects in this country and overseas.

Passage was on an 89-0 vote. Sen. John Stennis (D - Miss), floor manager for the second big defense money bill, said each of the projects was "essential to the maintenance of our military strength at home and abroad."

He won unanimous approval of addition of $143,176,000 to the funds previously voted by the House, including 86 additional National Guard projects in 30 different states. They will cost some 13 million dollars more than the budget recommendations for the current fiscal year.

Even so, Stennis noted the total still was more than 135 million dollars under President Eisenhower's budget requests of $1,563,200,000.

There were no Senate opposition speeches or efforts to trim down any of the many additions made by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The bulky measure now goes back to the House with a Senate-House conference committee expected to iron out differences over the Senate increases later.

City Business Shows Annual Vacation Drop

The usual midsummer slump, aggravated in the retail field by the loss of earnings resulting from the steel strike, cut most East Liverpool business and industrial indices in July — compared with their June totals.

But cumulative figures for the first seven months of 1959 show most lines are well ahead of the levels they held at the same time in 1958, when the nation was gripped by a general cutback in business.

The monthly summary of business and industrial conditions, issued today by the Chamber of Commerce, showed this picture: Ten of the 14 indices fell in July, compared with their June levels, but 11 are up for the first 7 months of 1959, compared with the same period in 1958.

Payrolls at 11 district industrial plants hit $1,208,125 in July, off 15.7 per cent from the $1,433,227 shown in June. They stand at $7,730,281 for the first 7 months of the year, an increase of 2.1 per cent from the $7,571,450 recorded at the same time in 1958.

Employment at the same plants totaled 3,990 in July, down 6.2 per cent from June's 4,252. The employment has averaged 4,149 monthly so far in 1958, down 5 per cent from the 4,367 average maintained at the same time in 1958.

Sales tax receipts fell from $88,370 in June to $43,441 in July, but most of the 50.8 per cent change was attributed to the fact that auto sales tax no longer is listed as part of the total. The change in the method of reporting became effective last month. The collections stand at $392,429 for the first seven months of 1959, a gain of 12.8 per cent from the $347,913 shown at the same time in 1958.

Inbound railroad carloadings gained slightly last month, but outboard loadings were off from June.

The inbound loadings totaled 366, up 1.9 per cent from the 359 shown in June. They total 2,277 for the first 7 months of the year, a gain of 42.1 per cent from the 1,602 shown at the same time in 1958.

The outbound loadings totaled 237 in July, a decline of 18.3 per cent from the 290 shown in June. They stand at 2,042 for the first seven months of 1959, an increase of 33.7 per cent from the 1,527 registered at the same time last year.

River traffic also slumped last month, apparently as a result of a cut-off of ore and coal shipments to district mills.

Dam 8 at Newell locked through 511 towboats last month, a drop of 16.8 per cent from the 614 shown in July. It has locked through 2,803 tows for the first 7 months of the year, a gain of 19.8 per cent from the 2,340 shown at the same time in 1958.

July's river traffic represented 1,170,400 tons of freight, off 32.8 per cent from June's 1,740,900. The tonnage totals 10,525,405 for the first 7 months of the year, an increase of 23 per cent from the 8,556,050 listed at the same time in 1958.

Despite the strike, new car sales in Columbiana County did not slump badly. A total of 350 new autos was registered in July, down just 4.9 per cent from June's 368.

The auto sales total 2,092 for the first 7 months of 1959, a gain of 34.7 per cent from the 1,553 shown at the same time in 1958.

The city's parking meter receipts hit $5,666 last month, up 32.9 per cent from the $4,264 shown in June. They stand at $33,429 for the first 7 months of the year, down 8.8 per cent from the $36,647 shown at the same time in 1958.

City relief cases totaled 69 last month, off 10.3 per cent from the 77 shown in June. They have averaged 84 monthly so far in 1959, down 22.2 per cent from the 108 average shown in the first seven months of 1958.

Postal receipts totaled $19,496 in July, up 5.6 per cent from the $18,467 shown in June. They total $140,405 for the first 7 months in 1959, a gain of 24.4 per cent from the $112,880 shown at the same time in 1958.

Bank debits hit $24,817,388 in July, up 6 per cent from June's $23,406,573. They have averaged $22,025,066 monthly so far in 1959, up 6 per cent from the $20,779,963 average shown at the same time in 1958.

Bank clearings totaled $3,552,685 in July, an increase of 1.4 per cent from June's $3,601,932. They total $23,308,521 for the first seven months of 1959, up 4.4 per cent from the $22,315,193 shown at the same time in 1958.

Rockefeller Doesn't Think He'll Be 'Drafted' By GOP

KRISTIANSAND, Norway (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he does not believe there will be any move to draft him as the Repbublican candidate for the presidency.

The New York governor made the statement at a news conference. He is here for the marriage of his son Steven to Anne Marie Rasmussen.

He repeated that he is not a candidate and that he would not be interested in being the nominee for vice president. Asked to comment on the possibility of a move to draft him, he said:

"I don't think there is any such thing."

He said he did not anticipate any action to draft him. Reporters asked if he would accept the GOP nomination on such terms. His answer was lost in a chorus of succeeding questions. When the question was repeated, he replied, "I said no."

Rockefeller has said he might change his position with respect to becoming a candidate for the nomination under certain circumstances. Reporters asked again whether his decision would be based on the findings of public opinion polls. He said it would not.

He replied "I'd prefer not to discuss the situation" when questioned about the circumstances that could make him a presidential candidate.

Twice, Rockefeller burst into laughter when a reporter addressed him as "Mr. Roosevelt."

"That man must be a Democrat," he said.

Senate Approves $1.4 Billion For Military Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate gave speedy, unanimous approval Friday to a $1,428,178,700 bill providing funds to build armories, aircraft shops and hundreds of military construction projects in this country and overseas.

Passage was on an 89-0 vote.

Sen. John Stennis (D - Miss), floor manager for the second big defense money bill, said each of the projects was "essential to the maintenance of our military strength at home and abroad."

He won unanimous approval of addition of $143,176,000 to the funds previously voted by the House, including 86 additional National Guard projects in 30 different states. They will cost some 13 million dollars more than the budget recommendations for the current fiscal year.

Even so, Stennis noted the total still was more than 135 million dollars under President Eisenhower's budget requests of $1,563,200,000.

There were no Senate opposition speeches or efforts to trim down any of the many additions made by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The bulky measure now goes back to the House with a Senate-House conference committee expected to iron out differences over the Senate increases later.

About 50 chanting and shouting women reached the municipal beerhall, smashing all windows.

Colenso is 27 miles north of Escourt, where Africans fought police with spears, stones and sticks Thursday night. Three Africans were wounded, one by gunfire.

Harshman Blanks Orioles On 3 Hits As Indians Win, 5-0

Antonelli Wins 17th As Giants Sweep Phillies, 6-0, 10-6

White Sox Check Slump At 2, 5-4

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Harshman, unable to hold jobs with two clubs because he couldn't win, now is Cleveland's surprise crutch, giving the Indians the left-handed pitching Herb Score was supposed to deliver in their run for the American League pennant.

Harshman's bad back led to a "damaged goods" squawk by Baltimore after a 1957 winter deal with the Chicago White Sox. But he stuck with the Orioles and won 12 last year, three of them shutouts.

This season, his back still corseted, Harshman was 0-6 and the Birds traded him to Boston. He won two for the Red Sox, then lost three and they sold him to second-place Cleveland.

Now, with Cleveland scrambling to catch the White Sox, Harshman suddenly has won two, saved one and lost none—figuring in half of the Indians' six victories in their last 11 games.

The big southpaw, 32, won his second Friday night, blanking Baltimore on three singles for a 5-0 decision that gave the Injuns a three-game streak and left 'em within 2½ games of Chicago.

The White Sox cut their slump at two, coming from behind for a 5-4 edge over Washington as reliever Gerry Staley won his sixth straight.

New York belted Kansas City 9-7, and Detroit beat Boston 2-0 on Paul Foytack's four-hitter and Al Kaline's two-run homer.

In the National League, San Francisco moved 2½ games ahead by sweeping a twi-night pair at Philadelphia 6-0, and 10-6. Second-place Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 6-5 while third-place Milwaukee, idled by rain against Chicago fell five games behind. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 2-1.

The White Sox scored two unearned runs in the first, then had to come from behind after the Senators chased Dick Donovan with two in the sixth for a 3-2 edge. Johnny Romano's two-run pinch single got back the lead for Staley (7-3) in the sixth.

Foytack (12-10) walked but one and struck out eight, allowing one hit after the second inning for his first victory over Boston in five decisions. Kaline's 22nd home run came in the third against Bill Monbouquette (4-5). It followed a walk to Harvey Kuenn.

The Yankees blew 2-0 and 5-3 leads and finally needed Ryne Duren's save after the A's scored one in the ninth. With one out and the bases loaded, Duren struck out Joe DeMaestri and got Roger Maris on a foul.

Pirates Defeated By Dodgers, 6-5

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's been an odd season of success for Johnny Antonelli, San Francisco's lefty ace who was upset by "lousy fly balls," and who can't beat Milwaukee, yet is closing in on 20 victories for the first time in three years.

Since losing two straight three weeks ago (beaten by these fly balls that went for homers in the Giants' windy home park), Antonelli has won three of four decisions while San Francisco has jumped into the National League lead.

Antonelli tied Milwaukee's Lew Burdette for the major league lead with his 17th victory Friday night. He did it with an eight-hitter that put the opener away as San Francisco moved 2½ games ahead with a 6-0 and 10-6 twinight doubleheader sweep at Philadelphia.

Second-place Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 6 - 5, but the third-place Braves fell five games behind when their game with the Chicago Cubs was rained out. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 2-1.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox ended their slump at two, retaining a 2½ - game lead with a 5-4 victory over Washington.

Southpaw Jack Harshman gave second - place Cleveland a three - game streak with a three-hitter that beat Baltimore 5-0. New York rapped Kansas City 9-7 and Detroit beat Boston 4-0.

Singles by Giants' Jackie Brandt and Orlando Cepeda dropped Robin Roberts (11-13) in the first inning. The Giants made it a breeze for Anty (17-7) with three in the sixth.

Young Mike McCormick (11-10) beat the Phils in the second game. He allowed only three hits, one Wally Post's 18th homer, but needed Stu Miller's relief after giving up his fifth walk in the seventh. The Giants got this one with seven runs in the fourth.

The Dodgers came from behind with four runs in the seventh against Ronnie Kline (8-12), then scored the clincher in the ninth when the Bucs missed a double-play on a bases-loaded grounder by pinch-hitter Carl Furillo.

Reds' rookie Jay Hook (3 - 3) gave up a first-inning homer by Joe Cunningham, then blanked the Cards the rest of the way on four hits. He also singled and scored the winning run on Gus Bell's single off Larry Jackson (10-12) in the fifth.

Browns, Lions Clash Tonight In Akron Bowl

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns and the Detroit Lions, both still testing their rookie talent, meet tonight in an exhibition here.

Veteran Tobin Rote is to start at quarterback for Detroit while for the Browns, Jim Ninowski will handle the passing chores. Milt Plum, regular Browns quarterback last year, probably will see some action.

The Browns haven't even had an all-out scrimmage since Aug. 1, when they lost to Pittsburgh 34-20. Detroit has played two exhibitions, tying Los Angeles and losing to the Chicago Cardinals.

One difference from the exhibition at Pittsburgh will be Bobby Mitchell. The fleet halfback, just out of the Army, reported to the Browns' training camp at Hiram Thursday. He probably will see action tonight.

Among the rookies Coach Paul Brown will be watching is Dick LeBeau, former Ohio State star, who will be at corner back on defense. Brown also wants a look at Bob Ptacek at fullback.

Francis O'brien of Michigan State, who has had only five days of work with the Browns, will be at offensive tackle.

U.S. Track, Swimming Squads Receive Praise

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The head coaches of Uncle Sam's male track and field and swimming teams called their squads "tremendous" today and said they expected records to be shattered in every direction in the Pan-American Games.

Both Chick Werner, of Penn State, the athletics chieftain, and Charles McCaffrey Jr., of Michigan State, the swimming top kick, predicted a huge harvest of gold medals for the United States in the third Western Hemisphere sports show, Aug. 27-Sept. 7.

"Our swim team is the greatest every assembled by the United States," said McCaffree. "I think every Pan-American record will be broken."

"Probably the greatest team ever put together," was Werner's comment about his mighty squad. "Most of the Pan-American records will be broken."

The competition among the United States entries will be fierce. Almost to a man they're aiming for gold medals here and a foot-in-the door for the 1960 Olympic Team.

The swimmers are headed by recent world record breakers Mike Troy (butterfly) and Frank McKinney (backstroke) of Indiana, and 18-year-old Alan Somers, the Indianapolis schoolboy who posted the second fastest 1,500 meters ever.

The track and fielders include three 1955 Pan-American champs in 400-meter hurdler Josh Culbreath, shot putter Parry O'Brien and hammer thrower Bob Backus; and seven 1956 Olympic gold medalists in O'Brien, hurdlers Lee Calhoun and Glenn Davis, discus thrower Al Oeter, hammer thrower Harold Connolly, high jumper Charlie Dumas and broadjumper Greg Bell.

Clay's Victor, Wants Moore

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"We'd fight Archie Moore tomorrow, if we could, and very probably we will soon," said Von Clay's happy manager, Anthony Graziano.

"We're guaranteeing Yvon Durelle $10,000 to fight Clay on Oct. 9 in Philadelphia," announced promoter Herman Taylor and matchmaker Pete Moran.

It seemed like optimistic talk regarding a 29-year-old fighter with only 11 pro fights, but that was the mood Friday night after Clay finished off Sonny Ray, the fourth-ranked lightheavyweight, in 56 seconds of the fifth round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

The decisive victory, in his first nationally televised (NBC) fight, meant that Clay, had reached the top ranks of his division — and Ray's comments reflected the blow dealt to his career.

Three tentatively scheduled fights, the 23-year-old Chicagoan said, without going into detail, probably will have to be cancelled.

Ray, with a 19-8-5 record now, figured that the bad cut over his left eye was the reason Referee Zack Clayton stopped the fight.

Clay has one draw and has won eight of his 10 victories by knockouts or TKOs.

Barbara Beatty, Bobby Putt Win Junior Golf Play

Barbara Beatty and Bobby Putt won first places in the 13-15 age division of the Junior Golf Tournament staged Thursday and Friday at the East Liverpool Country Club. Miss Beatty shot a 53-52—105 and Putt 46-38—84.

Pam Porter was runner-up to Miss Beatty with 50-57—107 and Phil Ankrim was second to Putt with a 60-58—118.

In the Girls' tourney, Candy Porter won in the 12-year-old and under division with a 67-67—134. Chris Porter was second with a 70-75—145.

For boys 10 and under, Bill Pickin won with a 63-50—118. Steve Pickin was runner-up with an 89-69—158.

Harold Putt took top honors in the 11-12 boys division with a 53-53—106, while Ronnie Kinsey was second with 61-61—122.

Two Fillies Could Put Crimp In Round Table, Sword Dancer

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two fillies who have shown an ability to carry their speed over a distance of ground could well put a crimp in the championship hopes of Round Table and Sword Dancer today.

Round Table, bidding for his second straight handicap division title and Horse of the Year honors, is confronted by a fleet equine miss in Wiggle II, a strapping 4-year-old out of Australia and named for Marilyn Monroe. They meet seven others in the 1 3-16 miles of the $100,000 added Arlington Handicap at Arlington Park.

Sword Dancer, well on his road to the 3-year-old crown off a victory in the Belmont Stakes and two triumphs at the expense of older horses after finishing second in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, goes in the $75,000 added Travers at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Resaca, herself a strong candidate for 3-year-old filly honors following wins in the Coaching Club American and Delaware Oaks, is in the field under a favorable weight concession.

Round Table, needing a victory to send his bank roll past the million and one-half dollar mark, picks up top weight of 132 pounds for the long run over Arlington Park's grass course. Willie Shoemaker will be in the saddle as Travis Kerr's Oklahoma-owned 5-year-old goes after the 40th victory of his career.

Redskin Coaches Optimistic; See Improvement Over 1958

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The way things look to Coach Michael Nixon, this is the best looking Washington Redskins squad in several years.

Nixon, who succeeded Joe Kuharich, has been with the Redskins as backfield coach since 1954 and he's confident that last year's record of 4-7-1 will be vastly improved upon in 1959.

Both Nixon and Los Angeles Rams Coach Sid Gillman had to regard Friday night's exhibition as a "must" to win; more so for the Rams as a prestige thing for the homefolks.

The 'Skins, Nixon believes, have far better over-all depth, good veteran personnel and a handful of good rookies of either immediate or future value.

Star of the show is quarterback Eddie LeBaron, the dynamic 5-foot-7, 160-pounder who led the National Football League passers last year and is already off to a superb start this year.

Top offensive backfield talent includes halfbacks Dick James and Jim Podoley, and fullbacks Johnny Olszewski and Don Bosseler.

Ready to step in for LeBaron are Notre Dame's ex-star, Ralph Guglielmi, and Eagle Day, a newcomer from Mississippi by way of Winnipeg in Canadian football.

Other name-players to remember include Bob Toneff, 250, giant tackle acquired from San Francisco; place kicker Sam Baker, and a couple of players currently on the injury list, halfback Bert Zagers and rookie lineman Joe Nicely from West Virginia.

Terra Firma Favorite In Buckeye Handicap

CLEVELAND (AP) — Terra Firma is given a slight edge to win the $40,000 Buckeye Handicap today at Randall Park.

The Olson & Prewitt horse won the Ohio Derby and the $75,000 Stars and Stripes cup at Chicago last year, but has not won a stakes race this year.

Close seconds among the early choices were Mrs. Ada Rice's Air Pilot and the Cain Hoy Stable's One-Eyed King.

Twelve horses are entered for the event over a mile and one-eighth track.

Top weight of 118 pounds will be carried by One-Eyed King. Terra Firma will tote 117 pounds and Air Pilot 116.

Riding Terra Firma will be Tony Despirito. Charles Burr will be aboard One-Eyed King and Jackie Leonard on Air Pilot.

Harshman Blanks Orioles On 3 Hits As Indians Win, 5-0

Antonelli Wins 17th As Giants Sweep Phillies, 6-0, 10-6

White Sox Check Slump At 2, 5-4

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Harshman, unable to hold jobs with two clubs because he couldn't win, now is Cleveland's surprise crutch, giving the Indians the left-handed pitching Herb Score was supposed to deliver in their run for the American League pennant.

Harshman's bad back led to a "damaged goods" squawk by Baltimore after a 1957 winter deal with the Chicago White Sox. But he stuck with the Orioles and won 12 last year, three of them shutouts.

This season, his back still corseted, Harshman was 0-6 and the Birds traded him to Boston. He won two for the Red Sox, then lost three and they sold him to second-place Cleveland.

Now, with Cleveland scrambling to catch the White Sox, Harshman suddenly has won two, saved one and lost none—figuring in half of the Indians' six victories in their last 11 games.

The big southpaw, 32, won his second Friday night, blanking Baltimore on three singles for a 5-0 decision that gave the Injuns a three-game streak and left 'em within 2½ games of Chicago.

The White Sox cut their slump at two, coming from behind for a 5-4 edge over Washington as reliever Gerry Staley won his sixth straight.

New York belted Kansas City 9-7, and Detroit beat Boston 2-0 on Paul Foytack's four-hitter and Al Kaline's two-run homer.

In the National League, San Francisco moved 2½ games ahead by sweeping a twi-night pair at Philadelphia 6-0, and 10-6. Second-place Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 6-5 while third-place Milwaukee, idled by rain against Chicago fell five games behind. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 2-1.

The White Sox scored two unearned runs in the first, then had to come from behind after the Senators chased Dick Donovan with two in the sixth for a 3-2 edge. Johnny Romano's two-run pinch single got back the lead for Staley (7-3) in the sixth.

Foytack (12-10) walked but one and struck out eight, allowing one hit after the second inning for his first victory over Boston in five decisions. Kaline's 22nd home run came in the third against Bill Monbouquette (4-5). It followed a walk to Harvey Kuenn.

The Yankees blew 2-0 and 5-3 leads and finally needed Ryne Duren's save after the A's scored one in the ninth. With one out and the bases loaded, Duren struck out Joe DeMaestri and got Roger Maris on a foul.

Pirates Defeated By Dodgers, 6-5

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's been an odd season of success for Johnny Antonelli, San Francisco's lefty ace who was upset by "lousy fly balls," and who can't beat Milwaukee, yet is closing in on 20 victories for the first time in three years.

Since losing two straight three weeks ago (beaten by these fly balls that went for homers in the Giants' windy home park), Antonelli has won three of four decisions while San Francisco has jumped into the National League lead.

Antonelli tied Milwaukee's Lew Burdette for the major league lead with his 17th victory Friday night. He did it with an eight-hitter that put the opener away as San Francisco moved 2½ games ahead with a 6-0 and 10-6 twinight doubleheader sweep at Philadelphia.

Second-place Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 6 - 5, but the third-place Braves fell five games behind when their game with the Chicago Cubs was rained out. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 2-1.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox ended their slump at two, retaining a 2½ - game lead with a 5-4 victory over Washington.

Southpaw Jack Harshman gave second - place Cleveland a three - game streak with a three-hitter that beat Baltimore 5-0. New York rapped Kansas City 9-7 and Detroit beat Boston 4-0.

Singles by Giants' Jackie Brandt and Orlando Cepeda dropped Robin Roberts (11-13) in the first inning. The Giants made it a breeze for Anty (17-7) with three in the sixth.

Young Mike McCormick (11-10) beat the Phils in the second game. He allowed only three hits, one Wally Post's 18th homer, but needed Stu Miller's relief after giving up his fifth walk in the seventh. The Giants got this one with seven runs in the fourth.

The Dodgers came from behind with four runs in the seventh against Ronnie Kline (8-12), then scored the clincher in the ninth when the Bucs missed a double-play on a bases-loaded grounder by pinch-hitter Carl Furillo.

Reds' rookie Jay Hook (3 - 3) gave up a first-inning homer by Joe Cunningham, then blanked the Cards the rest of the way on four hits. He also singled and scored the winning run on Gus Bell's single off Larry Jackson (10-12) in the fifth.

Browns, Lions Clash Tonight In Akron Bowl

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns and the Detroit Lions, both still testing their rookie talent, meet tonight in an exhibition here.

Veteran Tobin Rote is to start at quarterback for Detroit while for the Browns, Jim Ninowski will handle the passing chores. Milt Plum, regular Browns quarterback last year, probably will see some action.

The Browns haven't even had an all-out scrimmage since Aug. 1, when they lost to Pittsburgh 34-20. Detroit has played two exhibitions, tying Los Angeles and losing to the Chicago Cardinals.

One difference from the exhibition at Pittsburgh will be Bobby Mitchell. The fleet halfback, just out of the Army, reported to the Browns' training camp at Hiram Thursday. He probably will see action tonight.

Among the rookies Coach Paul Brown will be watching is Dick LeBeau, former Ohio State star, who will be at corner back on defense. Brown also wants a look at Bob Ptacek at fullback.

Francis O'brien of Michigan State, who has had only five days of work with the Browns, will be at offensive tackle.

U.S. Track, Swimming Squads Receive Praise

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The head coaches of Uncle Sam's male track and field and swimming teams called their squads "tremendous" today and said they expected records to be shattered in every direction in the Pan-American Games.

Both Chick Werner, of Penn State, the athletics chieftain, and Charles McCaffrey Jr., of Michigan State, the swimming top kick, predicted a huge harvest of gold medals for the United States in the third Western Hemisphere sports show, Aug. 27-Sept. 7.

"Our swim team is the greatest every assembled by the United States," said McCaffree. "I think every Pan-American record will be broken."

"Probably the greatest team ever put together," was Werner's comment about his mighty squad. "Most of the Pan-American records will be broken."

The competition among the United States entries will be fierce. Almost to a man they're aiming for gold medals here and a foot-in-the door for the 1960 Olympic Team.

The swimmers are headed by recent world record breakers Mike Troy (butterfly) and Frank McKinney (backstroke) of Indiana, and 18-year-old Alan Somers, the Indianapolis schoolboy who posted the second fastest 1,500 meters ever.

The track and fielders include three 1955 Pan-American champs in 400-meter hurdler Josh Culbreath, shot putter Parry O'Brien and hammer thrower Bob Backus; and seven 1956 Olympic gold medalists in O'Brien, hurdlers Lee Calhoun and Glenn Davis, discus thrower Al Oeter, hammer thrower Harold Connolly, high jumper Charlie Dumas and broadjumper Greg Bell.

Clay's Victor, Wants Moore

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"We'd fight Archie Moore tomorrow, if we could, and very probably we will soon," said Von Clay's happy manager, Anthony Graziano.

"We're guaranteeing Yvon Durelle $10,000 to fight Clay on Oct. 9 in Philadelphia," announced promoter Herman Taylor and matchmaker Pete Moran.

It seemed like optimistic talk regarding a 29-year-old fighter with only 11 pro fights, but that was the mood Friday night after Clay finished off Sonny Ray, the fourth-ranked lightheavyweight, in 56 seconds of the fifth round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

The decisive victory, in his first nationally televised (NBC) fight, meant that Clay, had reached the top ranks of his division — and Ray's comments reflected the blow dealt to his career.

Three tentatively scheduled fights, the 23-year-old Chicagoan said, without going into detail, probably will have to be cancelled.

Ray, with a 19-8-5 record now, figured that the bad cut over his left eye was the reason Referee Zack Clayton stopped the fight.

Clay has one draw and has won eight of his 10 victories by knockouts or TKOs.

Two Fillies Could Put Crimp In Round Table, Sword Dancer

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two fillies who have shown an ability to carry their speed over a distance of ground could well put a crimp in the championship hopes of Round Table and Sword Dancer today.

Round Table, bidding for his second straight handicap division title and Horse of the Year honors, is confronted by a fleet equine miss in Wiggle II, a strapping 4-year-old out of Australia and named for Marilyn Monroe. They meet seven others in the 1 3-16 miles of the $100,000 added Arlington Handicap at Arlington Park.

Sword Dancer, well on his road to the 3-year-old crown off a victory in the Belmont Stakes and two triumphs at the expense of older horses after finishing second in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, goes in the $75,000 added Travers at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Resaca, herself a strong candidate for 3-year-old filly honors following wins in the Coaching Club American and Delaware Oaks, is in the field under a favorable weight concession.

Round Table, needing a victory to send his bank roll past the million and one-half dollar mark, picks up top weight of 132 pounds for the long run over Arlington Park's grass course. Willie Shoemaker will be in the saddle as Travis Kerr's Oklahoma-owned 5-year-old goes after the 40th victory of his career.

Terra Firma Favorite In Buckeye Handicap

CLEVELAND (AP) — Terra Firma is given a slight edge to win the $40,000 Buckeye Handicap today at Randall Park.

The Olson & Prewitt horse won the Ohio Derby and the $75,000 Stars and Stripes cup at Chicago last year, but has not won a stakes race this year.

Close seconds among the early choices were Mrs. Ada Rice's Air Pilot and the Cain Hoy Stable's One-Eyed King.

Twelve horses are entered for the event over a mile and one-eighth track.

Top weight of 118 pounds will be carried by One-Eyed King. Terra Firma will tote 117 pounds and Air Pilot 116.

Riding Terra Firma will be Tony Despirito. Charles Burr will be aboard One-Eyed King and Jackie Leonard on Air Pilot.

Redskin Coaches Optimistic; See Improvement Over 1958

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The way things look to Coach Michael Nixon, this is the best looking Washington Redskins squad in several years.

Nixon, who succeeded Joe Kuharich, has been with the Redskins as backfield coach since 1954 and he's confident that last year's record of 4-7-1 will be vastly improved upon in 1959.

Both Nixon and Los Angeles Rams Coach Sid Gillman had to regard Friday night's exhibition as a "must" to win; more so for the Rams as a prestige thing for the homefolks.

The 'Skins, Nixon believes, have far better over-all depth, good veteran personnel and a handful of good rookies of either immediate or future value.

Star of the show is quarterback Eddie LeBaron, the dynamic 5-foot-7, 160-pounder who led the National Football League passers last year and is already off to a superb start this year.

Top offensive backfield talent includes halfbacks Dick James and Jim Podoley, and fullbacks Johnny Olszewski and Don Bosseler.

Ready to step in for LeBaron are Notre Dame's ex-star, Ralph Guglielmi, and Eagle Day, a newcomer from Mississippi by way of Winnipeg in Canadian football.

Other name-players to remember include Bob Toneff, 250, giant tackle acquired from San Francisco; place kicker Sam Baker, and a couple of players currently on the injury list, halfback Bert Zagers and rookie lineman Joe Nicely from West Virginia.

Liquor Smuggling Chain Believed Found At Prison

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — State Police think they discovered the first link in a smuggling chain that has furnished State Penitentiary prisoners with whisky.

Mrs. Vivian Crow, a 37-year-old mother of eight children here, was apprehended yesterday. Officers said prison officials first learned of the whisky smuggling more than a week ago. Mrs. Crow signed a statement admitting her part in such activities yesterday.

Formal arraignment was expected today for Mrs. Crow.

The development was made known yesterday after a bottle of whisky had been found on a trusty prisoner. Officers said it is believed that "a great volume" of liquor had been purchased by Mrs. Crow.

Warden Donivon Adams said there may be as many as a dozen women in Moundsville engaged in such whisky smuggling.

Sgt. Robert Bonar of the State Police said an investigation linked six prison trusties with Mrs. Crow's smuggling operation. Those men were confined and their privileges revoked.

Sgt. Bonar said a state trooper met Mrs. Crow at the prison while disguised as a trusty. The officer reportedly gave the woman money for liquor and told her where to hide a bottle for him to pick up later.

The woman's 19-year-old son delivered the whisky to a designated place and hid it. State Police related, however, that Mrs. Crow said it was the first time her son had any part in the operation.

Marion Waiting Word On Possible Khrushchev Visit

MARION, Ohio (AP)—The city of Marion is waiting patiently for an answer from the State Department concerning an inquiry it made recently about a possible Khrushchev visit.

Mayor Wendell Strong said Friday he answered the State Department inquiry with a letter, stating that Marion would welcome the Soviet premier and "make an all-out effort to provide appropriate accommodations, communications and security in accordance with the good wishes of President Eisenhower."

Marion has been used at least eight times this year by the State Department as a stopping place for foreign visitors.

Mayor Strong said the State Department may be especially interested in having Khrushchev visit an exhibit of modern farming techniques and equipment at Richmond, 17 miles from Newark.

Council To Act In Acquiring 5 New Vehicles

Legislation authorizing purchase of five new vehicles for the street, incinerator and police departments is scheduled for consideration at a special Council meeting Monday night at 7.

Two new pickup trucks will be purchased for the street department, while the police department will get a new cruiser. One of the existing cruisers, a 1958 model Plymouth, will be offered for sale.

The incinerator department will get a new truck with a 12-cubic-yard "packer" body. Bids will be sought on removing the dump body from a 1959 model 2-ton GMC truck and replacing it with a 12-cubic-yard "packer" body. At the same time a 1956 model truck with a 13-cubic-yard body will be offered for sale.

The vehicle purchases and changes were discussed about six weeks ago by Council and the administration. Council was told that the 1958 model Plymouth cruiser is worn beyond economical repair and the cost of maintaining it has been mounting. The administration recommended disposing of the 13-yard "packer" body truck because it is too large to maneuver through some alleys on trash and garbage routes.

An accompanying appropriation ordinance will provide funds for the vehicle purchases and other purposes. It includes $2,700 for the police cruiser, $3,500 for the two new pickups, $5,000 for the new packer-body garbage truck and $3,900 for converting the GMC truck from the dump body to the "packer" type.

The appropriation ordinance also provides $1,500 to give polio vaccine to first and second graders in the East Liverpool school system; $1,500 to pay the expenses of Police Chief Americo Radeschi while attending the FBI National Academy in Washington, and $8,000 for relocation of a 12-inch water line on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Legislation also will be presented authorizing the water department to buy 846 feet of new 12-inch pipe for the line relocation.

An ordinance will be presented to authorize issuance of $11,000 in bonds to retire notes used to finance street and sewer projects on sections of Moore St., Lisbon St., Harvey Ave., Hazel Alley and Walters St. The property - owners' share of the work was $8,392.54 and the city's share was $2,607.46, the legislation says.

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The $22,000 Rubber City Open bangs into its third round today with 39 of 63 surviving professionals under par for 36 holes.

Heading the list of 63 professionals and 11 amateurs who survived Friday's cutoff was Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla., who tacked together a pair of 66s for a 10-under-par 132 and a one-stroke lead at the halfway mark.

On his heels was Gardner Dickinson Jr.

Conferees Open Last-Stage Action On Labor Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees have moved into the last and most delicate stage of their efforts to reconcile the tough House labor control bill and the middle-of-the-road Senate measure.

Friday, before recessing until Monday, they got to work on the seventh and final section of the two bills, the section containing most of the political dynamite.

They briefly discussed two of the controversial Taft-Hartley law amendments, dealing with no man's land cases and prehire agreements in the construction industry.

No man's land refers to certain labor disputes which the National Labor Relations Board won't handle and courts have ruled state boards don't have jurisdiction over. In prehire agreements construction unions negotiate contracts before men are actually hired to do the job.

Earlier the conferees hammered out just about final agreement on the first six sections of the compromise.

They accepted a scaling down of criminal penalties for union officials who violate members' rights, and they agreed to bring small unions under requirements for public reporting of finances.

In both cases the House Landrum-Griffin bill's provisions were tentatively accepted. In the first instance, the Landrum - Griffin bill penalties were less stringent than the Senate bill's. In the second, the House bill's public reporting provision was stiffer than the Senate's.

The conferees have been working in closed sessions, but word of their progress has seeped out.

Khrushchev-Satellite Leaders Talks Hinted

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be meeting with several of his satellite leaders in the Crimea, East German Communist sources indicated today.

East Germany's two top leaders—Communist Party Chief Walter Ulbricht and Premier Otto Grotewohl—left East Berlin this week.

The official announcement of Ulbricht's departure said he was going to a resort on the Black Sea, the same area where Khrushchev is spending his holiday.

Truck Driver Admits Killing Estranged Wife

CINCINNATI (AP) — A truck driver, police say, has admitted killing his estranged wife with a shot in the head Friday night after earlier wounding her with four shots.

The death of Mrs. Ida Mae Monroe, 48, officers said, was discovered by her brother, Horace Miller, 43. She had lived with him since a split with her husband earlier this month.

Police arrested Ralph Monroe, 39, near the Miller apartment and said he admitted shooting his wife with a small foreign pistol.

Investigators said Monroe told them he kicked in the apartment door and shot his wife four times before leaving. He returned shortly, police said, and finding her still alive, shot her again in the head.

Liquor Smuggling Chain Believed Found At Prison

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — State Police think they discovered the first link in a smuggling chain that has furnished State Penitentiary prisoners with whisky.

Mrs. Vivian Crow, a 37-year-old mother of eight children here, was apprehended yesterday. Officers said prison officials first learned of the whisky smuggling more than a week ago. Mrs. Crow signed a statement admitting her part in such activities yesterday.

Formal arraignment was expected today for Mrs. Crow.

The development was made known yesterday after a bottle of whisky had been found on a trusty prisoner. Officers said it is believed that "a great volume" of liquor had been purchased by Mrs. Crow.

Warden Donivon Adams said there may be as many as a dozen women in Moundsville engaged in such whisky smuggling.

Sgt. Robert Bonar of the State Police said an investigation linked six prison trusties with Mrs. Crow's smuggling operation. Those men were confined and their privileges revoked.

Sgt. Bonar said a state trooper met Mrs. Crow at the prison while disguised as a trusty. The officer reportedly gave the woman money for liquor and told her where to hide a bottle for him to pick up later.

The woman's 19-year-old son delivered the whisky to a designated place and hid it. State Police related, however, that Mrs. Crow said it was the first time her son had any part in the operation.

41 A FARM SUPPLIES

Our plan is to go into the New Year with as little an inventory as possible. We are cutting prices on a lot of items listed here, Way Below Cost. Don't call us if you're just wanting to see how much this or that might cost. No prices will be given over the phone. If you're interested, come in and see the equipment and talk to us personally. Mean Business when you come! And We'll Do Business! We'll take your trade whatever it is and finance your new purchase up to 4 years.
This is your chance to save money. Don't wait, the cost next year might be up more than $100, on many of these same items depending on the steel outcome.

these are worth the money

DOWNTOWN—Cheerful three bedroom home with slate roof, good siding, two porches, downstairs newly carpeted, modern bath, basement and new gas furnace. Fenced back yard—big enough, but not too big. $8,500

SHERWOOD—One story modern, four rooms and bath with basement garage. This one is only 5 years old and doesn't need a thing inside or outside. Of course it has gas furnace, modern kitchen and bath, hardwood floors, automatic water heater and all the nice features. Only $13,000

LA CROFT, NEAR 7TH AVE. BUS STOP—Four rooms and bath, with garage, excellent patios with plenty of shade trees. The living room is carpeted with the finest sculptured wall to wall carpet and both bedrooms are carpeted wall to wall too. It's plastered and paneled, and their high fuel bill was under $20.00 for the coldest month last winter. Enough said until you see it at $11,000

Fan-Tab-U-L-Us

FANcy buying a 3 bedroom, 2 story home, with a good level lot, 2 car garage, at 838 AVONDALE for $9700.00. The home has been remarkably well taken care of, and is a real bargain.

TAB for this home is only $5250, even though it has 2 bedrooms, 2 stories, $22.22 a half year taxes, 2 blocks from the East End shopping center, and 2 anxious people wanting to move to their new home.

U are sure to like the 3 bedroom, 2 story home, at 1129 OHIO AVE. on the beautiful OHIO. The home is completely remodeled, with double cedar shingles, all new interior floors, good solid plastered walls, extra large lot, and 3 big bedrooms. The owner has been transferred and will sacrifice for $12,600.00

L - et us show you one that's hard to believe possible. The replacement cost on this 2 bedroom, brick home, on MIDWAY LANE is well over $26,000., and still we can sell it to you with an established lawn, good landscaping, and available in 10 minutes for $22,500. The owner left town, but the home remains to be sold to some thrifty shopper who knows quality.

US can't understand why you would pay rent when you can buy a 3 bedroom home at 1505 GLOBE ST. for less than $1500 down and small monthly payments on a present GI loan, and you do not need to be a veteran to take advantage of the 4½% interest rate available. There is a separate garage, gas conversion furnace, and very good location for a total price of $10,000.00

FANcy buying a 3 bedroom, 2 story home, with a good level lot, 2 car garage, at 838 AVONDALE for $9700.00. The home has been remarkably well taken care of, and is a real bargain.

TAB for this home is only $5250, even though it has 2 bedrooms, 2 stories, $22.22 a half year taxes, 2 blocks from the East End shopping center, and 2 anxious people wanting to move to their new home.

U are sure to like the 3 bedroom, 2 story home, at 1129 OHIO AVE. on the beautiful OHIO. The home is completely remodeled, with double cedar shingles, all new interior floors, good solid plastered walls, extra large lot, and 3 big bedrooms. The owner has been transferred and will sacrifice for $12,600.00

L - et us show you one that's hard to believe possible. The replacement cost on this 2 bedroom, brick home, on MIDWAY LANE is well over $26,000., and still we can sell it to you with an established lawn, good landscaping, and available in 10 minutes for $22,500. The owner left town, but the home remains to be sold to some thrifty shopper who knows quality.

US can't understand why you would pay rent when you can buy a 3 bedroom home at 1505 GLOBE ST. for less than $1500 down and small monthly payments on a present GI loan, and you do not need to be a veteran to take advantage of the 4½% interest rate available. There is a separate garage, gas conversion furnace, and very good location for a total price of $10,900.00

Road Official Waited Sept. 9

William McKenna, head of the State Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia, is scheduled to meet with the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon Sept. 9 at the Travelers Hotel.

The meeting was arranged by Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the Chamber committee. He said there will be an informal discussion of plans for highway construction in the area.

The department has two major projects on its books for the immediate East Liverpool area. They are the first stage of a California Hollow - West End freeway and the initial leg of an Ohio River-Lake Erie highway that eventually will link East Liverpool and Ashtabula.

The two four - lane highways will be tied together at the city limits, the local freeway stretching into W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. and the lake - river road runningg northwest to the Sub-Station area.

Members of the Chamber's Board of Trustees also will be invited to the meeting. The highway committee includes: Dale K. Allison, William B. Cooper, George S. Bloomgren, Judson English, Harry George, Adam Mort, John R. McLaren, W. F. McWhorter, William F. Porter, Dr. W. Z. Sulkes, J. Herbert Thompson, Judge Louis Tobin, Wendell H. Vodrey, Ben E. Warner, A. L. White, Atty. Paul Tobin and Phil Miraglata.

McKenna's last appearance here was July 30, when he conducted a public hearing on the proposed route for the first leg of the city freeway.

Cardinal Warns Catholics About Misuse Of Terms

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston, says Roman Catholics must guard against the misuse of terms such as peace, Americanism, communism and democracy.

"We must develop the ability to recognize things for what they are and give them the proper name," he said Friday night.

"We must not allow bigotry to be cloaked as Americanism and communism to be called liberalism or progressive democracy."

Cardinal Cushing spoke to the Second World Sodality Congress at Seton Hall University.

The congress has brought together some 5,000 delegates representing sodalities in 40 nations, including six Iron Curtain countries. A sodality is a local organization of Catholic laymen and clerics pledged to apply the teachings of the church to everyday life.

Hookstown Fair Awaits Opening

The Hookstown Grange Fair which opens Wednesday at the fairgrounds on Route 168, a mile north of Route 30, will offer a variety of attractions, events and entertainment.

Admission and parking will be free. All entries must be in by 10 a. m. Wednesday. A tractor pulling contest will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, 4-H Day. A pony pulling contest will be at 7 p. m. and the 4-H king and queen will be crowned at 9.

The Hookstown Saddle Club will hold a horse show Friday at 1 and 7 p. m. Events Saturday will feature a horse pulling contest at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., a machinery and livestock parade at 7:30 and 8 p. m. and a stage show at 9.

Strike Cuts Delegation To Legion Convention

Only two delegates from the East Liverpool area will attend the national American Legion convention today through Aug. 27 at Minneapolis.

Dwight Allison of Pyramus St., Chester, member of Post 121, left Friday as a delegate of the West Virginia Department, and John A. Fantone of Post 481 at Midland, is among nine delegates of the 26th District of Beaver, Butler and Lawrence Counties.

Posts 4 and 374 of East Liverpool, Post 70 of Wellsville, Post 114 of Newell and Post 163 of Lawrenceville will not be represented.

Plans had been made to send the Columbiana County 40 & 8 Voiture's French train but the trip has been canceled.

Air Force Official To Snub Invitations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A high Air Force official promises its officers will accept no more invitations from a big aircraft company to spend weekends at a plush club in the Bahama Islands.

Asst. Air Force Secretary Philip B. Taylor conceded to House investigators Friday it "didn't look good" for Pentagon officers to be the guests of the Martin Co. on these outings.

Optometrist Tells Lions All Senses Contribute To Seeing

Dr. Herschel A. Rubin, optometrist, told Lion Club members Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel that seeing is more than just the use of one's eyes.

"Our senses of touch, taste, smell, hearing and sight, all contribute to our seeing." "Seeing," "understanding", "vision" and "intelligence" are indivisible words.

Dr. Rubin traced the development of a newborn child and explained seeing as something that a child learns as well as talking or walking.

Children learn, he said, by first differentiating between things, a simple process, and then by similiarity, a more complex process. A child sees or learns of the world that he can reach first with his hands, or by his cries, then his eyes and other senses teach him the world he can not touch.

He said it is not true that the eye is like a camera, no picture is sent to the brain nor is seeing a mechanical process. Seeing is one's ability to understand, to vision, and to judge."

"The world we learn is that of experiences through our five senses and seeing is something 'special'."

Paul Zehnder, program chairman, introduced Dr. Rubin.

The club will hold its annual picnic Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at the lower pavilion at Thompson Park. Jim Johnston, Howard Tice and Charles Herman will be in charge. Tickets may be obtained from John Kelly.

The picnic committee and other members met last night at Tice's Restaurant to make plans. The club will not meet Friday.

George McCullough, 35th anniversary Founder's Day chairman, announced that the event will be held Sept. 30 at 6:30 p. m. at the Hotel. The committee will meet Friday at his home on Forsyth Pl. to make plans.

McCullough also reported on the zone chairmen conference held Sunday at Columbus. He said William Archibald of Massillon, District 13-A2 governor, will visit the club Sept. 18.

Rotary Plans Annual Picnic At Pine Ridge

Activities will begin about 3:30 p. m. with dinner to be served at 6. Carl Werner is general chairman; James Riggs and Percy Blake, food chairmen, and Don Schreckengost and William Cooper, athletic events.

Charles Taylor, president, urged every member was to attend, if possible.

UAW Attacks Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The current investigation of the United Auto Workers is a "political witchhunt" to kick off re-election campaigns of two Republican senators, the union charged Friday.

The charges came from Jack Conway, assistant to UAW President Walther Reuther, and Joseph L. Rauh Jr., the UAW's Washington lawyer. They pointed fingers at Sens. Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota and Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska.

Curtis replied "This is an inquiry for facts, and the facts developed can speak for themselves." Mundt said "When the facts are in it will be the appropriate time to say whether the practices disclosed are proper."

Conway said the two senators were running the Senate committee's probe of the UAW and other committee members were in the dark as to what was coming next.

He said the charges being aired against Richard T. Gosser, UAW international vice president, were a rehash of stale allegations raised 10 years ago and proved unfounded. Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said they were unsubstantiated when the committee looked into them a year and a half ago, Conway added.

Conway and Rauh called a news conference late Friday, saying this was the only way they could get the union's side before the public.

The committee had just recessed until next Wednesday what has been billed as a preliminary investigation of the UAW.

Welcome Due For Teachers In New Posts

Thirty-two new teachers joining the East Liverpool and Beaver Local school systems will be given a special welcome and a tour of the area Aug. 31 following a general teachers' meeting at Westgate School to prepare for the opening of the 1959-1960 term Sept. 1.

Plans for the welcome are being worked out as a joint project of the Chamber of Commerce and the East Liverpool Teachers Association.

The new teachers — 15 in the East Liverpool system and 17 from Beaver Local — will be taken on a tour of the city and then will be guests of the Chamber at a luncheon at the Travelers Hotel.

The Chamber and the Teachers Association also will co-operate in a "coffee hour" for all the local teachers attending the general meeting at Westgate. The tour for the new teachers will follow the general meeting. It will take in highlights to give the newcomers an idea of the city's business and industrial activities, its civic buildings and its scenic spots.

The newcomers were welcomed in a similar program last year.

The public relations and public education committees are in charge of the Chamber's phase of the program. Members include Edwin Maloney, Ralph W. Betts, Eugene Hall, James Locke, John McLaren, Alvin Babb and Bert Wakefield, with Austen Moore representing the Teachers Association.

Road Official Waited Sept. 9

William McKenna, head of the State Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia, is scheduled to meet with the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon Sept. 9 at the Travelers Hotel.

The meeting was arranged by Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the Chamber committee. He said there will be an informal discussion of plans for highway construction in the area.

The department has two major projects on its books for the immediate East Liverpool area. They are the first stage of a California Hollow - West End freeway and the initial leg of an Ohio River-Lake Erie highway that eventually will link East Liverpool and Ashtabula.

The two four - lane highways will be tied together at the city limits, the local freeway stretching into W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. and the lake - river road runningg northwest to the Sub-Station area.

Members of the Chamber's Board of Trustees also will be invited to the meeting. The highway committee includes: Dale K. Allison, William B. Cooper, George S. Bloomgren, Judson English, Harry George, Adam Mort, John R. McLaren, W. F. McWhorter, William F. Porter, Dr. W. Z. Sulkes, J. Herbert Thompson, Judge Louis Tobin, Wendell H. Vodrey, Ben E. Warner, A. L. White, Atty. Paul Tobin and Phil Miraglata.

McKenna's last appearance here was July 30, when he conducted a public hearing on the proposed route for the first leg of the city freeway.

Cardinal Warns Catholics About Misuse Of Terms

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston, says Roman Catholics must guard against the misuse of terms such as peace, Americanism, communism and democracy.

"We must develop the ability to recognize things for what they are and give them the proper name," he said Friday night.

"We must not allow bigotry to be cloaked as Americanism and communism to be called liberalism or progressive democracy.'

Cardinal Cushing spoke to the Second World Sodality Congress at Seton Hall University.

The congress has brought together some 5,000 delegates representing sodalities in 40 nations, including six Iron Curtain countries. A sodality is a local organization of Catholic laymen and clerics pledged to apply the teachings of the church to everyday life.

Strike Cuts Delegation To Legion Convention

Only two delegates from the East Liverpool area will attend the national American Legion convention today through Aug. 27 at Minneapolis.

Dwight Allison of Pyramus St., Chester, member of Post 121, left Friday as a delegate of the West Virginia Department, and John A. Fantone of Post 481 at Midland, is among nine delegates of the 26th District of Beaver, Butler and Lawrence Counties.

Posts 4 and 374 of East Liverpool, Post 70 of Wellsville, Post 114 of Newell and Post 163 of Lawrenceville will not be representated.

Plans had been made to send the Columbiana County 40 & 8 Voiture's French train but the trip has been canceled.

Air Force Official To Snub Invitations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A high Air Force official promises its officers will accept no more invitations from a big aircraft company to spend weekends at a plush club in the Bahama Islands.

Asst. Air Force Secretary Philip B. Taylor conceded to House investigators Friday it "didn't look good" for Pentagon officers to be the guests of the Martin Co. on these outings.

Optometrist Tells Lions All Senses Contribute To Seeing

Dr. Herschel A. Rubin, optometrist, told Lion Club members Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel that seeing is more than just the use of one's eyes.

"Our senses of touch, taste, smell, hearing and sight, all contribute to our seeing." "Seeing," "understanding", "vision" and "intelligence" are indivisible words.

Dr. Rubin traced the development of a newborn child and explained seeing as something that a child learns as well as talking or walking.

Children learn, he said, by first differentiating between things, a simple process, and then by similiarity, a more complex process. A child sees or learns of the world that he can reach first with his hands, or by his cries, then his eyes and other senses teach him the world he can not touch.

He said it is not true that the eye is like a camera, no picture is sent to the brain nor is seeing a mechanical process. Seeing is one's ability to understand, to vision, and to judge."

"The world we learn is that of experiences through our five senses and seeing is something 'special'."

Paul Zehnder, program chairman, introduced Dr. Rubin.

The club will hold its annual picnic Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at the lower pavilion at Thompson Park. Jim Johnston, Howard Tice and Charles Herman will be in charge. Tickets may be obtained from John Kelly.

The picnic committee and other members met last night at Tice's Restaurant to make plans. The club will not meet Friday.

George McCullough, 35th anniversary Founder's Day chairman, announced that the event will be held Sept. 30 at 6:30 p. m. at the Hotel. The committee will meet Friday at his home on Forsyth Pl. to make plans.

McCullough also reported on the zone chairmen conference held Sunday at Columbus. He said William Archibald of Massillon, District 13-A2 governor, will visit the club Sept. 18.

UAW Attacks Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The current investigation of the United Auto Workers is a "political witchhunt" to kick off re-election campaigns of two Republican senators, the union charged Friday.

The charges came from Jack Conway, assistant to UAW President Walther Reuther, and Joseph L. Rauh Jr., the UAW's Washington lawyer. They pointed fingers at Sens. Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota and Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska.

Curtis replied "This is an inquiry for facts, and the facts developed can speak for themselves." Mundt said "When the facts are in it will be the appropriate time to say whether the practices disclosed are proper."

Conway said the two senators were running the Senate committee's probe of the UAW and other committee members were in the dark as to what was coming next.

He said the charges being aired against Richard T. Gosser, UAW international vice president, were a rehash of stale allegations raised 10 years ago and proved unfounded. Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said they were unsubstantiated when the committee looked into them a year and a half ago, Conway added.

Conway and Rauh called a news conference late Friday, saying this was the only way they could get the union's side before the public.

The committee had just recessed until next Wednesday what has been billed as a preliminary investigation of the UAW.

Welcome Due For Teachers In New Posts

Thirty-two new teachers joining the East Liverpool and Beaver Local school systems will be given a special welcome and a tour of the area Aug. 31 following a general teachers' meeting at Westgate School to prepare for the opening of the 1959-1960 term Sept. 1.

Plans for the welcome are being worked out as a joint project of the Chamber of Commerce and the East Liverpool Teachers Association.

The new teachers — 15 in the East Liverpool system and 17 from Beaver Local — will be taken on a tour of the city and then will be guests of the Chamber at a luncheon at the Travelers Hotel.

The Chamber and the Teachers Association also will co-operate in a "coffee hour" for all the local teachers attending the general meeting at Westgate. The tour for the new teachers will follow the general meeting. It will take in highlights to give the newcomers an idea of the city's business and industrial activities, its civic buildings and its scenic spots.

The newcomers were welcomed in a similar program last year.

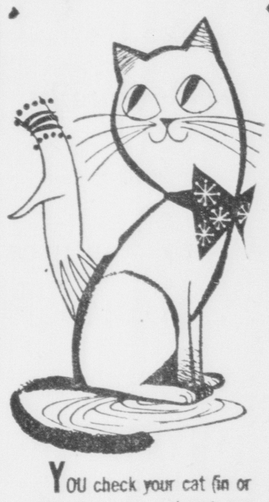

The public relations and public education committees are in charge of the Chamber's phase of the program. Members include Edwin Maloney, Ralph W. Betts, Eugene Hall, James Locke, John McLaren, Alvin Babb and Bert Wakefield, with Austen Moore representing the Teachers Association.
